East Asia Imperilled Transnational Challenges To Security Cambridge Asia Pacific Studies:

East Asia Imperilled Alan Dupont, 2001-10-15 In this pathbreaking analysis Alan Dupont argues that an emerging new class of non military threats has the potential to destabilize East Asia and reverse decades of hard won economic and social development Transnational threats stem from overpopulation deforestation and pollution global warming unregulated population movements transnational crime and virulent new strains of infectious diseases This authoritative book is essential reading for East Asia specialists and makes a significant and timely contribution to international security debates ASEAN and the Institutionalization of East Asia Ralf Emmers, 2011-09-28 This book examines the evolving multilateral security arrangements in East Asia with a focus on the role of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN It explores the function and relevance of ASEAN in East Asia s emerging institutional security landscape These issues have direct implications for the future of the ASEAN Security Community the relevance of the ASEAN cooperative model to wider regional arrangements and finally for the further institutionalization of great power relations within these multilateral structures The book highlights ASEAN s successes and shortcomings It also considers ASEAN led institutions in the wider region and goes on to analyse alternative approaches to regionalism including the China Japan South Korea Trilateral Summit Overall it assesses how the various initiatives are likely to develop concluding that ASEAN despite its shortcomings is likely to continue to play a key role Security and Migration in Asia Melissa Curley, Siu-lun Wong, 2008-07-30 Security and Migration in Asia explores how various forms of unregulated and illegal forms of human movement within Asia and beyond the region have come to be treated as security issues and whether and how a securitization framework enables a more effective response to them The process and theory of securitization and desecuritization have been developed within the international relations literature by the so call Copenhagen school scholars including Barry Buzan and Ole Waever among others The topics explored in this well presented and engaging book cover geographic areas of China Northeast Asia Central Asia the Russian Far East Southeast Asia and the Hong Kong SAR and includes research on human trafficking and people smuggling financing illegal migration and links to transnational organized crime regulated and unregulated labour migration the securitization of illegal migration in sending transit and receiving countries This book provides compelling insights into contemporary forms of illegal migration under conditions of globalization and makes a contribution to the literature in international relations and migration studies Think Tanks and Non-Traditional Security Erin Zimmerman, 2016-02-09 Asian security institutions have struggled to adapt to the so called non traditional security issues that characterise the strategic landscape of the 21st century The resulting gaps in governance have increasingly been filled by think tanks which have arguably begun to change the way that Asian security is governed Routledge Handbook of Asian Regionalism Mark Beeson, Richard Stubbs, 2012-03-15 The Routledge Handbook of Asian Regionalism is a definitive introduction to and analysis of the development of regionalism in Asia including coverage of East Asia Southeast Asia and South Asia The contributors engage in a comprehensive exploration of what is arguably the most dynamic and important region in the world. Significantly, this volume addresses the multiple manifestations of regionalism in Asia and is consequently organised thematically under the headings of conceptualizing the region, economic issues, political issues, strategic issues, regional organizations. As such, the Handbook presents some of the key elements of the competing interpretations of this important and highly contested topic, giving the reader a chance to evaluate not just where Asian regionalism is going but also how the scholarship on Asian regionalism is analysing these trends and events. This book will be an indispensable resource for students and scholars of Asian politics, international relations and regionalism.

Energy Security A. Marquina, 2008-10-08 A new look at the different perspectives on energy security policies of European and Asian countries. The book explains the reasons for the failure of EU common energy policies and the deficiencies in the policies towards Central Asia. It examines Chinese energy diplomacy and the possibility of energy competition and cooperation in Northeast Asia.

Regionalism in the New Asia-Pacific Order Joseph A. Camilleri, 2003-01-01 Regionalism in the Asia Pacific is a complex and rapidly evolving phenomenon. This volume explores the relationship between globalization and regionalization between states, markets and civil society and between US hegemony and Asian aspirations.

Development, Migration, and Security in East Asia Dewi Fortuna Anwar, 2005

Northern Sustainabilities: Understanding and Addressing Change in the Circumpolar World Gail Fondahl, Gary N. Wilson, 2017-01-03 This edited volume examines the multiple dimensions of sustainability in the Circumpolar North, a territory facing unprecedented environmental and social challenges at the start of the 21st century. The chapters explore the cultural, economic, political and environmental aspects of sustainability as well as examples of successful research collaboration with northern and indigenous communities. By examining a wide range of issues and places, the contributions highlight the diversity of the Circumpolar North, the challenges and opportunities it faces and the ways in which people and communities are adapting to and influencing the changing circumstances of this dynamic region. Contributors include both Indigenous and non-Indigenous researchers from eleven different countries and from across the career spectrum. This book will appeal to an academic audience interested in the manifold facets of sustainability in the Arctic and sub-arctic regions of the world.

Non-traditional Security in the Asia-Pacific Ralf Emmers, 2004 This work studies the non-traditional security agenda in the Asia Pacific, focusing particularly on the dynamics of securitisation. It questions why and how some issues are securitised and examines the policy outcomes that derive from securitising these concerns. The conceptual discussion draws upon but also modifies the theory of securitisation and desecuritisation originally advanced by the Copenhagen School. The empirical study analyses Thailand's securitisation of drug trafficking, Singapore's combined securitisation of sea piracy and maritime terrorism and Australia's securitisation of people smuggling. These various issues can be defined as forms of transnational crime. The case studies consider the rhetoric used by the three countries concerned as well as their policy responses at the unilateral, bilateral and multilateral level.
