Eastern European Roma In The Eu Mobility Discrimination Solutions:

Eastern European Roma in the EU Anca Pusca, 2012 Compiled in the context of the recent Roma evictions from France and Italy and the launch of EU's Platform for Roma Inclusion this volume addresses the pressing issue of the so called Roma problem in the EU With contributions from established scholars in Romani studies such as Zoltan Barany Maria Spirova and Vera Messing the volume focuses on four main themes

Radical Right Parties in Central and Eastern Europe Bartek Pytlas, 2015-10-16 In Central and Eastern Europe radical right actors significantly impact public debates and mainstream policy agenda But despite this high discursive influence the electoral fortune of radical right parties in the region is much less stable It has been suggested that this may be due to the fact that mainstream competitors increasingly co opt issues which are fundamental for the radical right However the extent to which such tactics play a role in radical right electoral success and failure is still a subject for debate This book is the first to provide a systematic theoretical framework and in depth empirical research on the interaction between discursive influence party competition and the electoral fortune of radical right parties in Central and Eastern Europe It argues that in order to fully explain the impact of mainstream party strategies in this regard it is vital to widen the analysis beyond competition over issues themselves and towards their various legitimizing narratives and frame ownership Up to date debates over policies of collective identity minority morality and nationalizing politics in Hungary Poland and Slovakia serve as best cases to observe these under researched phenomena The analytical model is evaluated comparatively using original primary data combined with election studies and expert surveys Advancing an innovative fine grained approach on the mechanisms and effects of party competition between radical right and mainstream parties this book will be of interest to students and scholars researching the far right and European party politics as well as political contestation and framing

Roma in Europe Ioana Bunescu, 2016-04-08 This path breaking book explains the processes through which the heterogeneous population of Roma in Europe constitutes itself into a transnational collective identity through the practices and discourses of everyday life as well as through those of identity politics It illustrates how the collective identity formation of the Roma in Europe is constituted simultaneously in the local national and European contexts drawing attention to the mismatches and gaps between these levels as well as the creative opportunities for achieving this political aim Bunescu demonstrates that the differences and stereotypes between the Roma and the non Roma as well as those among different groups of Roma fulfil a politically creative function for the constitution of a unified transnational collective identity for the Roma in Europe The book is unique comprising chapters ranging from local ethnographic accounts of inter ethnic relations of rural Roma in a Transylvanian village to interviews with international Roma political activists controversial Roma kings and an extensive chapter on their role of bridging the local and the higher levels of identity politics visual depictions of a diversity of Roma living spaces and interpretations of the politics of space in private dwellings as well as in public venues such as at Roma international festivals

Racialized Bordering Discourses on

European Roma Nira Yuval Davis, Georgie Wemyss, Kathryn Cassidy, 2018-10-19 Using detailed examples from Finland Hungary Canada and the UK this book explores relationships between the racialization and discrimination experienced by heterogeneous European Roma populations and the processes of everyday bordering embedded in state policies and media discourses In the context of the long histories of discrimination experienced by Roma people across Europe the chapters engage with changing EU policies including the recent tensions between inter European de bordering and the selective immigration policies introduced as different states react to EU free movement Employing an intersectional analysis the authors capture the perspectives of differentially situated people and associated discourses to examine the continuing racism experienced by European Roma citizens in their interaction with bordering technologies They examine the homogenizing racial othering and construction of Roma as a criminal category that co exists with the differentiations made between indigenous and migrant Roma central to dominant bordering discourses and the contestations of different Roma populations Chapters focus on Roma activism and the media the exclusion of Roma residents via urban regeneration and welfare provision and powerful media and political discourses about Roma populations in different national and transnational contexts This book was originally published as a special issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies The fringes of citizenship Julija Sardelic, 2021-07-27 This book presents a socio legal enquiry into the civic marginalisation of Roma in Europe Instead of looking only at Roma s position as migrants an ethnic minority or a socio economically disadvantage group it considers them as European citizens questioning why they are typically used to describe exceptionalities of citizenship in developed liberal democracies rather than as evidence for how problematic the conceptualisation of citizenship is at its core Developing novel theoretical concepts the book investigates a variety of topics including migration and free movement statelessness and school segregation It argues that while Roma are unique as a minority the treatment that marginalises them is not This is demonstrated by comparing their position to that of other marginalised minorities around the globe An electronic edition of this book is freely available under a Creative Commons CC BY NC ND licence

Health and Economic Development in South-eastern Europe, 2006 Health is increasingly seen as a robust predictor of economic growth This report examines the contribution of health to economic development in south eastern Europe where the dynamics of health cooperation gained momentum following the Second Ministerial Health Forum co organized by the Council of Europe Development Bank the Council of Europe and the WHO Regional Office for Europe with the special participation of ministers of finance The report presents the socioeconomic context and the evolution of the health sector It examines the trends and patterns in the burden of disease and socioeconomic inequalities in health and the development of health systems and policies as well as the way they should evolve to meet future health challenges The report demonstrates the economic importance of health for the countries of south eastern Europe Health as an ingredient in human capital is especially relevant for sustained economic development and social cohesion These two political objectives figure prominently on the European Union s agenda and play a central role in its Lisbon agenda Ed Documents, Working Papers - Council of Europe, Parliamentary Assembly Council of Europe. Parliamentary Assembly, 2002 The Economist , 2008 Sociological Abstracts , 2004-04 Ethnicity and Educational Policies in South Eastern Europe Nikolai Genov, 2005 The crosscutting area of interethnic relations and educational policies is the locus of most intriguing scientific and practical issues in South Eastern Europe They concern economic political and cultural dimensions of social action and social order touch upon sensitive relationships between individual and collective human rights and imply integration or disintegration of societal systems Selected Papers on Refugee Issues , 1994 International Journal of Health Services , 1998 Law and European affairs , 2000

Delivering Services in Multicultural Societies Alexandre Marc, 2010 The last twenty years has witnessed a growing recognition of the importance of considering cultural and ethnic diversity in the design and implementation of development programs The increasing cultural diversity of societies throughout the world and the important role of culture in identity formation in a global society create a major challenge for national and local governments in ensuring social cohesion and inclusion This book reviews recent approaches in taking into account cultural diversity in delivery of basic services It first discusses the idea that supporting cultural diversity can help achieve social inclusion and social cohesion It provides an outlook on the debate on multiculturalism from various perspectives and discusses the benefits and risks of policies supporting cultural diversity The book then examines policies and programs supporting cultural diversity in the delivery of basic services education health care customary law traditional governance systems and cultural services For each of these services the book reviews the main challenges and describes best practices Finally the book attempts a synthesis of what has been learned from the experience of taking cultural diversity into account in delivery of services The Social Situation in the European Union , 2004 Gender and Migration Caroline Sweetman, 1998 The articles in this collection explore the vast array of different reasons for women and men moving within and outside their native countries whether it be for employment upon marriage or in the midst of conflict The authors who include Uma Kothari and Emma Crewe Ben Rogaly and Alex Jones stress the importance of seeing an individual migrant in her or his context as a member of a social network spanning different locations Understanding these links means that migration can be seen as part of a wider strategy for making a living Jewish Currents , 1997 Ethnic Diversity in European Labor Markets Martin Kahanec, Klaus F. Zimmermann, 2011 Describes the labour market situation of ethnic minorities in the European Union as a whole and includes studies of individual countries Addresses the key policy challenges of labour market integration of ethnic minorities and analyses what works and what constitutes good practice Le Magazine , 1999 Catalogue of Publications Council of Europe, 2011
