Edisons Eve A Magical History Of The Quest For Mechanical Life

Kara Reilly

Edisons Eve A Magical History Of The Quest For Mechanical Life:

Edison's Eve Gaby Wood, 2002 A rich and informative exploration of our age old obsession with making life Could an eighteenth century mechanical duck really digest and excrete its food Was the Turk a celebrated chess playing and winning machine fabricated in 1769 a dazzling piece of fakery or could it actually think Why was Thomas Edison obsessed with making a mechanical doll a perfect woman mass produced Can a twenty first century robot express human emotions of its own Taking up themes long familiar from the realms of fairy tales and science fiction Gaby Wood traces the hidden prehistory of a modern idea the thinking hoaxes and inventions that presaged contemporary robotics and the current experiments with artificial intelligence Informed by the author s scientific and historical research Edison s Eve is also a brilliant literary cultural and philosophical examination of the motives that have driven human beings to pursue the creation of mechanical life and the effects of that pursuit both in its successes and in its failures on our sense of what makes us human Automata and Mimesis on the Stage of Theatre History K. Reilly, 2011-08-26 The automaton known today as the robot can be seen as a metaphor for the historical period in which it is explored Chapters include examinations of Iconoclasm s fear that art might surpass nature the Cartesian mind body divide automata as objects of courtly desire the uncanny Olympia and the revolutionary Robots in post WWI drama Carnal Thoughts Vivian Sobchack, 2004-11-01 In these innovative essays Vivian Sobchack considers the key role our bodies play in making sense of today s image saturated culture Emphasizing our corporeal rather than our intellectual engagements with film and other media Carnal Thoughts shows how our experience always emerges through our senses and how our bodies are not just visible objects but also sense making visual subjects Sobchack draws on both phenomenological philosophy and a broad range of popular sources to explore bodily experience in contemporary moving image culture She examines how through the conflation of cinema and surgery we ve all had our eyes done why we are moved by the movies and the different ways in which we inhabit photographic cinematic and electronic space Carnal Thoughts provides a lively and engaging challenge to the mind body split by demonstrating that the process of making sense requires an irreducible collaboration between our thoughts and our senses Edison Edmund Morris, 2019 From Pulitzer Prize winning author Morris comes a revelatory new biography of Thomas Alva Edison the most prolific genius in American history Victorian Automata Suzy Anger, Thomas Vranken, 2024-03-20 The relationship between lifelike machines and mechanistic human behaviour provoked both fascination and anxiety in Victorian culture This collection is the first to examine the widespread cultural interest in automata both human and mechanical in the nineteenth century It was in the Victorian period that industrialization first met information technology and that theories of physical and mental human automatism became essential to both scientific and popular understandings of thought and action Bringing together essays by a multidisciplinary group of leading scholars this volume explores what it means to be human in a scientific and industrial age It also considers how Victorian inquiry and practices continue to shape current thought on race creativity mind and
