Educating Creativity Primer John Houtz:

The Educational Psychology of Creativity John Houtz, 2003 The author of this volume addresses particular areas of creativity research from the point of view of applications to education The focus is on understanding measuring and developing the creative thinking and problem solving skills in all students not simply the intellectually gifted The

Dancing Self Carol M. Press, 2002 The author employs psychoanalytic self psychology to analyze the creative process emphasizing the self world relationship and its transformative possibilities This analysis is applied to the work of modern dance choreography with special attention to the life and work of Paul Taylor Drawing on this analysis the implications of her theory of the creative process for the enrichment of the individual in his or her daily aesthetic are examined Creative Intelligence Donald Ambrose, Leonora M. Cohen, Abraham J. Tannenbaum, 2003 The Contributions to this volume are part of a collaborative interdisciplinary attempt to clarify expand and discover integrative patterns within current conceptual foundations for research and practice in fields pertaining to creative intelligence Chapters in the first section establish the lay of the land for this ambitious project The authors in this section also make recommendations about the most effective ways to approach broad scope exploration of theory pertaining to creative intelligence The next section includes several conceptual frameworks that have potential for incorporating a wide range of phenomena pertaining to creative intelligence Section Three includes clarifications of environmental influences on the development of creative intelligence and the sociocultural selection of giftedness Authors in this section also deal with internal cognitive processes and the moral ethical dimensions of mind Finally Section Four returns to broad scope perspective taking Fostering Creativity A. J.

Cropley, David Cropley, 2009 Innovation is universally recognized as key components of first world economies that is vital for continued prosperity Innovation is driven by the generation of effective novelty in other words creativity However both in higher education and also in business and industry insufficient effort is being made to encourage and develop creativity with negative consequences for innovation This is partly due to inadequate understanding of what creativity is and how it can be fostered This book draws on complementary views of creativity and innovation as a business process and as a social psychological model to create a more detailed and more highly differentiated model which is capable of serving as a practical foundation for diagnosing analyzing optimizing and fostering creativity and innovation in a variety of organizational settings It is built around a large number of case studies and down to earth examples and offers many concrete suggestions for fostering what the authors call functional creativity Critical Thinking and Reasoning Daniel Fasko, 2003 THE CHAPTERS and discussions in the volume integrate the various perspectives on critical thinking and stimulate new thinking about thinking Chapters in the first section present several issues that concern critical thinking and discuss the lack of core concepts and structures in the field of teaching and critical thinking Chapter 4 describes Sternberg's theory on how people think The next three chapters focus on the learning and development of critical thinking and reasoning Chapters 10 to 12

focus on the teaching of critical thinking and Chapters 14 through 16 focus on the assessment of critical thinking The epilogue discusses neglected issues in critical thinking

Underserved Gifted Populations Joan F. Smutny, 2003 An examination of such factors as environment culture age and gender that have made gifted students either invisible or unqualified for special services It explores the problems these target populations face and discusses creative strategies for identification and instruction

Educating Creativity John Houtz, 2002 This work about the education of creativity is concerned with the body of knowledge pertaining to the development and improvement of creativity skills and behaviours of children and adults and in the application of this knowledge base to education practice
