Ecstatic Confessions Ecstatic Confessions:

Ecstatic Confessions Martin Buber,1996-11-01 Ecstatic Confessions is Martin Buber s unique personal gathering of the testimonies of mystics throughout the centuries expressing their encounters with the divine It features the author's seminal introduction to mysticism Ecstasy and Confession which probes the nature of what Buber terms the most inward of all experiences God's highest gift Buber sifted through texts from oriental pagan Gnostic Eastern Orthodox Catholic Protestant Jewish and Muslim sources down the centuries to cull those moving records that manage to convey some quality of an experience that is essentially beyond the power of words to capture Ecstatic Confessions orchestrates these reports from the edge of human experience into a revealing look at the nature of the ecstatic experience itself and the tension arising from the mystic's compelling need to give witness to an event that can never truly be verbalized Ecstatic Confessions illuminates the intellectual development of its author even as it probes the almost insurmountable barrier between language and authentic mystical experience which is in essence beyond the grasp of rational constructs

Echo of the Soul J. Philip Newell,2002-11 Few issues have caused the church more difficulty through the ages than those surrounding the human body Throughout much of Christian history spiritual seekers have considered the body to be at best a hindrance to spiritual enlightenment and at worst an enemy to be suppressed Many of our contemporary negative preoccupations with physical appearance image and sexuality derive from this ancient and habitual denial of the notion that we were created in God's image In Echo of the Soul bestselling author J Philip Newell finds that the human body like creation is actually the dwelling place of God Using the Old Testament Wisdom literature which informed Celtic spirituality s positive understanding of what it means to be human Newell looks at each part of the body as a sacred text that reveals something of the Divine Looking back to a time before Christians began to distrust their physicality Newell shows that our most ancient texts challenge modern assumptions about love beauty sexuality learning wisdom power and responsibility and bridges the body spirit divide The Silent Cry Dorothee Sölle, 2001 Today a kind of Rdemocratized mysticismS of those without much religious background flourishes This mystical experience is not drawn so much of the tradition as out of contemporary experiences In that sense each of us is a mystic and Soelle's work seeks to give theological depth clarity and direction This work conveys Soelle's deep religious knowledge and wisdom with her passion for social justice Quest George Robert Stow Mead, 1912 The Mystery of the Earth Israel Koren, 2010-01-01 Challenging the prevalent view that in order to establish his Dialogical thought Martin Buber had to forsake his earlier mystical work Israel Koren demonstrates instead that mystical paradigms serve as the foundation for Buber's dialogue and endow it with greater depth While most scholars portray Buber's dialogical thought mainly in its Western and modern philosophical background the author examines Buber's interpretation of Hasidic themes such as Devekut attachment to God among others in order to establish that his dialogical writings evolved out of his interpretation of Judaism in general his understanding of the Hasidic conception of the world and the mission of man in Hasidism in particular Buber's work is therefore shown to be original mystical neo Hasidic thought which serves as a new link in the historical chain of Jewish mysticism The Ouest .1912 Aesthetics of Renewal Martina Urban, 2009-05-15 Martin Buber's embrace of Hasidism at the start of the twentieth century was instrumental to the revival of this popular form of Jewish mysticism Hoping to instigate a Jewish cultural and spiritual renaissance he published a series of anthologies of Hasidic teachings written in German to introduce the tradition to a wide audience In Aesthetics of Renewal Martina Urban closely analyzes Buber's writings and sources to explore his interpretation of Hasidic spirituality as a form of cultural criticism For Buber Hasidic legends and teachings were not a static canonical body of knowledge but were dynamic and open to continuous reinterpretation Urban argues that this representation of Hasidism was essential to the Zionist effort to restore a sense of unity across the Jewish diaspora as purely religious traditions weakened and that Buber s anthologies in turn played a vital part in the broad movement to use cultural memory as a means to reconstruct a collective identity for Jews As Urban unravels the rich layers of Buber's vision of Hasidism in this insightful book he emerges as one of the preeminent thinkers on the place of religion in modern culture Human Inquiries ,1970 From Ghetto to Emancipation David N. Myers, William V. Rowe, 1997 The central addressed the conference question by reported on in this book was posed by Salo Wittmayer Baron then a young Jewish historian in his 1928 essay Ghetto and Emancipation In it he challenged what he called the lachrymose conception of Jewish history in which the Jewish Middle Ages were all evil and Jewish post Emancipation was all good In asserting that medieval Jews possessed more rights than the great bulk of the population and enjoyed full internal autonomy in the corporatist order of medieval civilization he also found much to criticize in the loss of communal autonomy and the recasting of Judaism into a narrow confessional mold in the wake of the Enlightenment In other words how can a group seeking to preserve a measure of collective identity survive within a liberal society that values individual rights and obligations above all else This became the basis for a conference in 1995 at the University of Scranton attended by a distinguished roster of scholars on various fields of Jewish studies from across the United States The Lord's Supper.
