The Church and the Churches G. R. Evans, 2002-04-04 Individual churches today have a lively ecumenical consciousness but they often express anxieties about what will become of them in a future united Church Questions are being asked about the goal of such unity In this book G R Evans asks what we mean by a church and how different Christian bodies have understood the way a church is related to the Church She surveys the nature of unity and what the fullness of the communion being reached for might consist of the place of diversity of faith and order in a united Church or ways in which there can go on being many churches in one Church and how they might be related to it and questions about the common structures one Church would need and the way in which it could come to think and act as a single body of Christ The book concludes with a discussion of the concept of communion which now looks very hopeful ecumenically as a guide to the way forward

An Introduction to Ecclesiology Veli-Matti Kärkkäinen, 2002-10-02 Veli Matti Kärkkäinen provides an up to date survey and analysis of the major ecclesiological traditions the most important theologians and a number of contextual approaches to both the unity and the diversity of ecclesiastic understandings and practices

Ecumenical Ecclesiology Gesa Elsbeth Thiessen, 2009 This is a rich collection of fifteen articles by European North American and Asian theologians who are concerned with the concept life unity and future of the church It offers a wealth of broad perspectives on ecclesiology by scholars from Catholic Protestant and Orthodox backgrounds The first section Perspectives on Ecumenical Ecclesiology comprises reflections on postmodern ecclesiologies as well as on the development and problems concerning ecumenical methods and models of unity The second section Communion Ecclesiology and Otherness provides some pertinent deliberations on how an ecclesiology of communion can integrate otherness In particular Zizioulas communion ecclesiology is critically examined the possibility for a retrieval of Eucharistic theology between Catholics and Orthodox is put forward and Tillard's communion ecclesiology is appraised as offering resources for innerdenominational otherness The final section Ecclesiology in Global Contexts considers critically the possibility of evangelical ecclesiology as an answer to ethnic impaired Christian community The role of the Catholic Church and its values in Europe and vis vis the European Constitution is examined The Church of Nigeria's Constitutional Revision 2005 and its ecclesial ecumenical implications comes into focus and three notable concepts of unity as developed by three Indian scholars S K George John Sadiq and Karem David are evaluated Finally the Japanese diaspora in the States is appraised as a place where a particular Japanese Christian vision could emerge through the internationalist ecclesiology developed by Japanese Christian missionaries

Provisional Churches Christian Duquoc, 1986

Koinonia and the Quest for an Ecumenical Ecclesiology Lorelei F. Fuchs, 2008 The word koinonia has gained prominence in recent ecumenical discussions In this original and substantial work Lorelei Fuchs proposes the theological idea of koinonia commonly translated as communion or fellowship as the key to moving fractured churches toward a future unity Fuchs challenges churches to move beyond mere dialogue and to apply ecumenical insights at the local level She begins by relating the exegetical meaning of koinonia to its ecumenical meaning tracing the place of koinonia both within the churches and between the churches She then examines the concept of koinonia in the extensive and fruitful dialogues that have taken place between Lutherans Anglicans and Roman Catholics finally articulating a symbolic competence for communionality that provides a rich and workable way forward for church unity at all levels Encompassing the latest in ecumenical thought Koinonia and the Quest for an Ecumenical Ecclesiology provides a broad thoughtful framework for realizing Christ's prayer that all may be one so that the world may believe Mother Church Carl E. Braaten, Carl Braaten here issues an energetic call for a truly ecumenical church including a Lutheran rationale for recovery of the historical episcopacy and papal primacy as servants of the gospel Braaten writes of the church's place in the divine scheme of things and of the various modernisms that distort or hide the classical Christian tradition Tracing his own ecumenical journey he outlines an ecclesiology of communion and advances specific proposals for enhancing Christian unity in liturgy spirituality and church polity The confessing movement named after Martin Luther he views in terms of its basic intent to reform and renew the church not to start a new Christianity in a multiplicity of separate denominations Visible Church, Visible Unity Ola Tjørhom, 2004 In Visible Church Visible Unity Ola Tjørhom explores central questions in current ecclesiological and ecumenical debates from the perspective of an evangelical catholicity of the Great Tradition of the Church Tjørhom shows how the fundamental visibility of the Church and the similarly visible nature of church fellowship is a corrective cover against invisible perceptions of these entities This theme of visibility is developed in view of the sacraments the ministries and the mission of the Church Visible Church Visible Unity includes Chapter 1 Toward the End of the Reformation Project The Riddle of Protestantism Chapter 2 The Great Tradition of the Church An Old Way Forward Chapter 3 The Church Mother of Faith and Priest of Creation Chapter 4 The Goal of Visible Unity Reaffirming Our Commitment and Chapter 5 Life in the Spirit Toward a Materialist Spirituality Dumitru Staniloae: An Ecumenical Ecclesiology Radu Bordeianu, 2011-09-29 Widely considered the most important Orthodox theologian of the twentieth century Dumitru Staniloae 1903-1993 contributed significantly to an ecumenical understanding of these themes Because of his isolation by the Romanian Communist regime his work still awaits its merited reception especially given its potential contribution towards Christian unity In Staniloae's understanding the Church is a communion in the image of the Trinity Because there is a continuum of grace between the Trinity and the Church the same relationships that exist among trinitarian persons are manifested in creation in general and the Church in particular In this way the Trinity fills the world and the Church determining their mode of existence Intratrinitarian relationships are manifested in the relationships between humankind and non-human creation the Church and the world local and universal aspects of the Church clergy and the people and among various charisms United and Uniting Albert J.D. Walsh, 2011-05-01 The United Church of Christ was formed in 1957 to be first and foremost a proactive agent in the often tangled but nonetheless breathtaking ministry and mission of ecumenicity in the pursuit of ever greater visible unity among the diversity of Christian churches This singular task of ecumenicity is arguably the most crucial in the formulation of an ecclesiology essential to the United Church of Christ as a united and uniting church a mission Albert Walsh refers to in this book as her God given vision and vocation In United and Uniting Walsh contends that the identity and self understanding of the UCC at both national and local levels is best comprehended as a Christ centered and conciliar fellowship and therefore her ecclesiology must be fundamentally ecumenical A Christ centered ecumenicity must shape inform and characterize the whole of her ecclesiology and membership in the UCC is defined almost exclusively in terms of a conciliar identity Walsh advocates a return to ecumenical formation at the level of the grassroots or membership in the local congregation as holding the greatest promise for furtherance of the wider ecumenical mission

The Church, Community of Salvation George Henry Tavad,1992 This book attempts to outline a theology of the Church for the twenty first century Starting from a principle that was enunciated in Paul VI s first encyclical Ecclesiam suam it finds its focus in the awareness of being the Church that is implied in the profession of the Christian faith It takes full account of the contemporary manner of reading Scripture and it sees the tradition as an unfinished forward movement The ecumenical dialogues and the encounter with religions that were the fruits of Vatican Council II contribute to the discussion The future of the Church is anticipated in light of scientific findings regarding the shape and history of the universe This ecclesiology is profoundly Catholic experiential and Trinitarian

Exploring Ecclesiology Brad Harper,Paul Louis Metzger,2009 This evangelical and ecumenical ecclesiology survey text provides a comprehensive biblical historical and cultural perspective and addresses contemporary issues in church life

John Calvin's Ecclesiology Gerard Mannion,Eduardus Van der Borght,2011-06-02 Many events were staged and a plethora of new books appeared to mark the quincentenary of the birth of John Calvin in 2009 But one area received considerably less attention in that anniversary year namely Calvin s ecclesiology This study explores the development and fundamental legacy of Calvin s perspectives on and relationship with the church Contributions are included which explore the later development and denominational variations of Calvin s ecclesiology along with ecumenical discussions responses to and implications of Calvin s understanding of the church There are further chapters which focus on particular aspects such as Calvin s ecclesiological method understanding of ministry the sacramental principle the invisible church etc Contributions on the use of Calvin s ecclesiology by later and modern contemporary ecclesiologists also feature This is a volume that brings together leading and emerging theological voices from Europe North America and Latino America and from across the different theological sub disciplines Significantly the book has a decidedly ecumenical perspective with writers from several different denominational traditions contributing

The Church as the Community of the Believers Manuel Rebeiro,2001

Church of Churches Jean-Marie-Roger Tillard,1992 Except for some excellent studies on the notion of koinonia few works have been devoted to a revival of the entire vision of the Church around communion a vision of ecclesiology which is rooted in the solidarity that finds its locus in

Jesus Christ Church of Churches the fruit of several years of research teaching and ecumenical involvement is intended to overcome this lack It is not an exhaustive study but rather a point of departure for discussing how the vision of the ecclesiology of communion the most difficult question of the ecumenical debate can break down the barrier of misunderstanding suspicions and claims in which the diverse ecclesial traditions are locked

An Introduction to Ecclesiology Veli-Matti Kärkkäinen, 2021-03-02 What is the church In this thoroughly revised and updated text Veli Matti Kärkkäinen provides a wide ranging survey of ecclesiology in the midst of rapid developments and new horizons This unique primer not only orients readers to biblical historical and contemporary ecclesiologies but also highlights contextual and global perspectives

Toward an Ecumenical Ecclesiology Margrethe B. J. Brown, 1975

Thomas Aquinas' Vision of the Church George Sabra, 1987

The Shaping of Ecumenical Ecclesiology, 1948-1954 Heather A. Warren, 1985

Reshaping Ecumenical Theology Paul Avis, 2010-02-11 Reshaping Ecumenical Theology is a major contribution to the study of the Church It provides clear and authoritative orientation for the student while probing deep into a range of key issues in ecclesiology and ecumenical dialogue from a critical standpoint that will stimulate discussion among scholars and ecumenists It reclaims some old orthodoxies while challenging some new ones and points to a deeper and more personal engagement with the major traditions of the Christian Church as the way to fuller unity and more effective mission Reshaping Ecumenical Theology argues that the values of difference and diversity and the priority of mission and evangelisation must shape our picture of unity It transcends old arguments about establishment by showing that all churches are compelled to develop a constructive relationship to the modern state wherever possible if they are to be effective in mission The central ecumenical notion of reception is re interpreted not as the faithful unquestioningly receiving the teaching of church authorities but as the process whereby the whole Church discerns the truth of new developments The mantra baptism is complete sacramental initiation is challenged and the place of confirmation is secured within a total process of initiation The ministry of the episcopate is affirmed but only by being related to the gospel on which the Church is founded The nature of communion is examined and the imperative of maintaining it against divisive tendencies is affirmed The hermeneutics of unity shows that we are shaped by each other through the conflict or rivalry of traditions We are what we are because you are what you are
