Gladiator Philip Wylie, 2023-09-18 In Gladiator Philip Wylie presents a riveting exploration of the interplay between human potential societal expectations and moral dilemmas through the lens of a genetically superior protagonist Roger Bacon Wylie employs a potent blend of speculative fiction and social commentary set against the backdrop of a society grappling with the implications of eugenics and the search for a superman The novel's literary style intertwines sharp dialogue and rich descriptive passages immersing the reader in a narrative that questions the ethics of scientific advancements and the nature of heroism in a modern context Philip Wylie a prominent American author and social critic was known for his keen observations on human behavior blended with a scientific perspective His experiences and insights as a journalist and screenwriter shaped his views on the moral complexities of the human condition Wylie's deep interest in psychology and philosophy is reflected in Gladiator where he deftly navigates the potential perils of unchecked ambition and societal pressures that were especially resonant during the early to mid 20th century Gladiator is a thought provoking read for those captivated by the nuances of human capability and ethical responsibility Wylie's masterful storytelling combined with profound themes of individuality and societal conflict invites readers to ponder significant questions about their own values and the direction of humanity

The Contemporary Post-Apocalyptic Novel Diletta De Cristofaro, 2019-12-26 Traditional apocalyptic texts concern the advent of a better world at the end of history that will make sense of everything that happened before But what is at stake in the contemporary shift to apocalyptic narratives in which the utopian end of time is removed The Contemporary Post Apocalyptic Novel offers an innovative critical model for our cultural obsession with the end by focussing on the significance of time in the 21st century post apocalyptic novel and challenging traditional apocalyptic logic Once confined to the genre of science fiction the increasing popularity of end of the world narratives has caused apocalyptic writing to feature in the work of some of contemporary literature's most well known fiction writers Considering novels by Will Self Cormac McCarthy David Mitchell Emily St John Mandel Jeanette Winterson and others Diletta De Cristofaro frames the contemporary apocalyptic imagination as a critique of modernity's apocalyptic conception of time and history Interdisciplinary in scope the book historicises apocalyptic beliefs by exploring how relentlessly they have shaped the modern world

A Philosophy of the Insect Jean-Marc Drouin, 2019-10-01 The world of insects is at once beneath our feet and unfathomably alien Small and innumerable insects surround and disrupt us even as we scarcely pay them any mind Insects confront us with the limits of what is imaginable while at the same time being essential to the everyday functioning of all terrestrial ecosystems In this book the philosopher and historian of science Jean Marc Drouin contends that insects pose a fundamental challenge to philosophy Exploring the questions of what insects are and what scientific aesthetic ethical and historical relationships they have with humanity he argues that they force us to reconsider our ideas of the animal and the social He traces the role that insects have played in language mythology literature entomology sociobiology and taxonomy over the centuries Drouin emphasizes the links between humanistic and scientific approaches how we have projected human roles onto insects and seen ourselves in insect form Caught between the animal and plant kingdoms insects force us to confront and reevaluate our notions of gender family society struggle the division of labor social organization and individual and collective intelligence A remarkably original and thought provoking work A Philosophy of the Insect is an important book for animal studies environmental ethics and the history and philosophy of science
