Early Arabic Christian Contributions To Trinitarian Theology Emerging Scholars:

Early Arabic Christian Contributions to Trinitarian Theology Thomas W. Ricks, 2013 The doctrine of the Trinity is the keystone of Christian faith and teaching yet most of the secondary accounts on the development of this crucial doctrine do not extend beyond Nicaea and pay scant attention to vital cultural traffic In this volume the author examines the exposition of the doctrine of the Trinity in a set of texts from key Arabic Christian thinkers from the eighth and ninth centuries and demonstrates that fresh thinking of this cornerstone doctrine occurred in the new context of a regnant Islamic culture in this context Christian theologians discovered the salience of the Nicene doctrine while engaging a new religious partner The author provides an overlooked angle on the history of Trinitarian theology and brings attention to several profound Christian figures rarely found in Western accounts

The Rowman & Littlefield Handbook of Christianity in the Middle East Mitri Raheb, Mark A. Lamport, 2020-12-15 This work represents the current and most relevant content on the studies of how Christianity has fared in the ancient home of its founder and birth Much has been written about Christianity and how it has survived since its migration out of its homeland but this comprehensive reference work reassesses the geographic and demographic impact of the dramatic changes in this perennially combustible world region The Rowman Littlefield Handbook of Christianity in the Middle East also spans the historical socio political and contemporary settings of the region and importantly describes the interactions that Christianity has had with other major minor religions in the region

Muslim-Christian Polemics across the Mediterranean Diego R. Sarrió Cucarella, 2015-01-27 In Muslim Christian Polemics across the Mediterranean Diego R Sarri Cucarella provides an exposition and analysis of Shih b al D n al Qar f s d 684 1285 Splendid Replies to Insolent Questions al Ajwiba al f khira an al as ila al f jira Written in response to an apology for Christianity by the Melkite Bishop of Sidon Paul of Antioch the Splendid Replies is among the most extensive and most important medieval Muslim refutations of Christianity and the primary significance of this study is to provide detailed access to its argumentation and intellectual context for the first time in a western language Moreover the Introduction and Conclusion creatively situate the work within the challenges of modern day Christian Muslim dialogue

The Oxford Companion to Christian Thought Adrian Hastings, Alistair Mason, Hugh S. Pyper, 2000-12-21 Embracing the viewpoints of Catholic Protestant or Orthodox thinkers of conservatives liberals radicals and agnostics Christianity today is anything but monolithic or univocal In The Oxford Companion to Christian Thought general editor Adrian Hastings has tried to capture a sense of the great diversity of opinion that swirls about under the heading of Christian thought Indeed the 260 contributors who hail from twenty countries represent as wide a range of perspectives as possible Here is a comprehensive and authoritative though not dogmatic overview of the full spectrum of Christian thinking Within its 600 alphabetically arranged entries readers will find lengthy survey articles on the history of Christian thought on national and regional traditions and on various denominations from Anglican to Unitarian There is ample coverage of Eastern thought as well examining the Christian tradition in China Japan India and Africa The contributors examine major theological topics such as resurrection the Eucharist and grace as well as controversial issues such as homosexuality and abortion In addition short entries illuminate symbols such as water and wine and there are many profiles of leading theologians of non Christians who have deeply influenced Christian thinking including Aristotle and Plato and of literary figures such as Dante Milton and Tolstoy Most articles end with a list of suggested readings and the book features a large number of cross references The Oxford Companion to Christian Thought is an indispensable guide to one of the central strands of Western culture An essential volume for all Christians it is a thoughtful gift for the holidays Routledge Revivals: Medieval Islamic Civilization (2006)

Meri,2006 Publisher description Church, Society and University Deborah Grice,2019-08-06 In 1241 4 the theology masters at the university at Paris with their chancellor Odo of Chateauroux mandated by their bishop William of Auvergne met to condemn ten propositions against theological truth This book represents the first comprehensive examination of what hitherto has been a largely ignored instrument in a crucial period of the university s early maturation However the book s ambition goes wider than this The condemnation provides a window through which to view the wider doctrinal intellectual institutional and historical developments within the emerging university These include the advent of the Dominicans and Franciscans at the university and the developing focus of Paris theologians on using their learning for preaching at a time of a rapid and sometimes divergent development of doctrine and concerns over the newly translated Aristotelian and associated Arab and Jewish works heresy the Greek Church and the Jews The book compares the condemnation s ten articles with the major statement of Catholic principles in the first canon of the Fourth Lateran Council 1215 and assesses what conclusions can be drawn from their apparent correlation Its examination of the condemnation in the context of the surrounding wider developments provides the basis for a much better understanding of the university and its theology faculty in the formative years between the grant of its statutes in 1215 and the better known period from the 1250s onwards which included major figures such as Thomas Aquinas and this in turn should lead to a better understanding of the later period itself and its doctrinal and institutional developments
