Early Modern Europe Issues And Interpretations:

Early Modern Europe James B. Collins, Karen L. Taylor, 2008-04-15 This reader brings together original and influential recent work in the field of early modern European history Provides a thought provoking overview of current thinking on this period Key themes include evolving early modern identities changes in religion and cultural life the revolution of the mind roles of women in early modern societies the rise of the modern state and Europe and the new world system Incorporates new scholarship on Eastern and Central Europe Includes an article translated into English for the first time Interpreting Early Modern Europe C. Scott Dixon, Beat Kumin, 2019-09-11 Interpreting Early Modern Europe is a comprehensive collection of essays on the historiography of the early modern period circa 1450 1800 Concerned with the principles priorities theories and narratives behind the writing of early modern history the book places particular emphasis on developments in recent scholarship Each chapter written by a prominent historian caught up in the debates is devoted to the varieties of interpretation relating to a specific theme or field considered integral to understanding the age providing readers with a behind the scenes look at how historians have worked and still work within these fields At one level the emphasis is historiographical with the essays engaged in a direct dialogue with the influential theories methods assumptions and conclusions in each of the fields At another level the contributions emphasise the historical dimensions of interpretation providing readers with surveys of the component parts that make up the modern narratives Supported by extensive bibliographies primary materials and appendices with extracts from key secondary debates Interpreting Early Modern Europe provides a systematic exploration of how historians have shaped the study of the early modern past It is essential reading for students of early modern history For a comprehensive overview of the history of early modern Europe see the partnering volume The European World 3ed Edited by Beat Kumin <https://www.routledge.com/The-European-World-1500-1800-An-Introduction-to-Early-Modern-History/Kuminah2/p/book/9781138119154>

Money Matters in European Artworks and Literature, c. 1400-1750 Natasha Seaman, Joanna Woodall, 2025-10-01 Money Matters in European Artworks and Literature c 1400 1750 focuses on coins as material artefacts and agents of meaning in early modern arts The precious metals double sided form and emblematic character of coins had deep resonance in European culture and cultural encounters Coins embodied Europe s power and the labour increasingly located in colonised regions of extracting gold and silver Their efficacy depended on faith in their inherent value and the authority perceived to be imprinted into them guaranteed through the institution of the Mint Yet they could speak eloquently of illusion debasement and counterfeiting A substantial introduction precedes essays by interdisciplinary scholars on five themes power and authority in the Mint currency and the anxieties of global trade coins and persons coins in and out of circulation credit and risk An Afterword on a contemporary artist demonstrates the continuing expressive and symbolic power of numismatic forms

Max Horkheimer and the Foundations of the Frankfurt School John Abromeit, 2011-10-10 This book is the first comprehensive intellectual biography of Max Horkheimer during the early and middle phases of his life 1895-1941 Drawing on unexamined new sources John Abromeit describes the critical details of Horkheimer's intellectual development This study recovers and reconstructs the model of early Critical Theory that guided the work of the Institute for Social Research in the 1930s Horkheimer is remembered primarily as the co-author of Dialectic of Enlightenment which he wrote with Theodor W Adorno in the early 1940s But few people realize that Horkheimer and Adorno did not begin working together seriously until the late 1930s or that the model of Critical Theory developed by Horkheimer and Erich Fromm in the late 1920s and early 1930s differs in crucial ways from Dialectic of Enlightenment Abromeit highlights the ways in which Horkheimer's early Critical Theory remains relevant to contemporary theoretical discussions in a wide variety of fields

The Natural Environment in Late Byzantine Correspondence Kalliope Mavrommati, 2025-10-10 This book investigates environmental issues traced through the epistolography of the late Byzantine period which spans roughly the end of the twelfth century to the mid-fifteenth century The book's overarching goal is to shed light on the complex ways in which the Byzantines conceptualised their connection to the natural world both in broad strokes and in finer granularity and to provide a general understanding of societal dependence on the environment It offers further details of this relationship by drawing on a wide variety of literary sources as well as archaeological and environmental data

Encyclopedia of Witchcraft Richard M. Food, Religion and Communities in Early Modern Europe Christopher Kissane, 2018-06-14 Using a three-part structure focused on the major historical subjects of the Inquisition the Reformation and witchcraft Christopher Kissane examines the relationship between food and religion in early modern Europe Food Religion and Communities in Early Modern Europe employs three key case studies in Castile Zurich and Shetland to explore what food can reveal about the wider social and cultural history of early modern communities undergoing religious upheaval Issues of identity gender cultural symbolism and community relations are analysed in a number of different contexts The book also surveys the place of food in history and argues the need for historians not only to think more about food but also with food in order to gain novel insights into historical issues This is an important study for food historians and anyone seeking to understand the significant issues and events in early modern Europe from a fresh perspective

Bulletin of Information ,1927 The Renaissance of Feeling Kirk Essary,2024-01-11 Offering a re reading of Erasmus s works this book shows that emotion and affectivity were central to his writings It argues that Erasmus s conception of emotion was highly complex and richly diverse by tracing how the Dutch humanist writes about emotion not only from different perspectives theological philosophical literary rhetorical medical but also in different genres In doing so this book suggests Erasmus provided a distinctive if not unique Christian humanist emotional style Demonstrating that Erasmus consulted multiple intellectual traditions and previous works in his thoughts on affectivity The Renaissance of Feeling sheds light on how understanding emotions in late medieval and early modern Europe was a multi disciplinary affair for humanist scholars It argues that the rediscovery and proliferation ancient texts during the so called renaissance resulted in shifting perspectives on how emotions were described and understood and on their significance for Christian thought and practice The book shows how the very availability of source material coupled with humanists eagerness to engage with multiple intellectual traditions gave rise to new understandings of feeling in the 16th century Essary shows how Erasmus provides the clearest example of such an intellectual inheritance by examining his writings about emotion across much of his vast corpus including literary and rhetorical works theological treatises textual commentaries religious disputations and letters Considering the rich and diverse ways that Erasmus wrote about emotions and affectivity this book provides a new lens to study his works and sheds light on how emotions were understood in early modern Europe
