

Welcome to our 5th grade graduation! This exciting day marks an important transition for our students. Thank you all for coming to support our wonderful graduates. Graduates, please take a moment to recognize your family and friends that have supported you on your journey with a round of applause.

Today is bittersweet for the staff at _____. We are sad to see our fifth graders go, but we are so excited to see what they will accomplish and do with their lives. I feel so honored that I had a chance to work with these outstanding young people. Many of the students graduating today have been with us since kindergarten (and a few have been here since preschool). Because of them, I feel confident about our future as a nation. I have seen such kindness, compassion, intelligence and leadership from these students.

Students, I hope you look back on these years with fondness. Many of you know that I graduated from _____ just a few short years ago. I hope you have great memories of this place like I do. May the friendships you've made last a lifetime and may the lessons you have learned serve you well in the future. We hope that you will all achieve great things because we know that you can.

You have done so much in your time here. You learned to read and write. You have become skilled at math. You've learned to program robots, created your own mini films, learned about _____ history and studied geography. You have learned to play the keyboard and the recorder and put on wonderful performances for your families. You've created beautiful pieces of art and recently explored digital design and 3D printing. You've learned about health, wellness and physical activity. You've had fun playing games at the Fall Festival. You've played with your friends at the TMCA and you've boogied away at the disco. You have been taught by many special teachers.

Our job here is done – we've taught you all that we have had the time and the days to teach you and you have learned these lessons well. Before we let you go, however, I hope you will allow me this one last opportunity to give you some advice to take with you to the middle school.

1. Work hard The effort you put into a task will determine how much you grow from it. The harder you try, the more you learn and the better you get. Don't give up when something gets hard for you. Remember it is in those times that you are really learning. Great effort offers great rewards.

Reaching Higher Rhona S. Weinstein, 2009-07-01 Drawing upon a generation of research on self fulfilling prophecies in education Weinstein argues that our expectations of children are often too low She shows that children typed early as not very smart can go on to accomplish far more than is expected of them by an educational system with too narrow a definition of ability Underserved Patrons in University Libraries Julia C. Skinner, Melissa Gross, 2021-01-12 This practical and research based volume focuses on how libraries can meet the needs of underserved patrons in college and university libraries with an emphasis on those facing trauma abuse and discrimination While university libraries strive to meet the needs of all students some groups have traditionally been overlooked This volume engages with those underserved populations on college campuses with an emphasis on those facing trauma abuse and discrimination It brings a variety of authorial voices to discuss different aspects of that service and to share current research related to underserved populations in libraries This combination supports research in LIS and beyond while offering concrete ways for service providers to make a difference in the lives of their patrons Editors Skinner and Gross have both conducted extensive research in ethically meeting patron needs They and their contributors are keenly aware of the complex and interwoven considerations that inform such service such as patron desire for confidentiality accompanied by an urgent need for assistance This volume is committed to sharing diverse voices in the field and to exploring the interrelationship between theoretical findings and practical applications all in the service of underserved patrons

Boy Writers Ralph Fletcher, 2023-10-10 Writing test scores indicate that boys have fallen far behind girls across the grades In general boys don't enjoy writing as much as girls What's wrong How can we do a better job of creating boy friendly classrooms so their voices can be heard In Boy Writers Reclaiming Their Voices Ralph Fletcher draws upon his years of experience as staff developer children's book author and father of four boys He also taps the insights from dozens of writing teachers around the US and abroad Boy Writers asks teachers to imagine the writing classroom from a boy's perspective and consider specific steps we might take to create stimulating classrooms for boys Topic choice emerges as a crucial issue The subjects many boys like to write about war weapons outlandish fiction zany or bathroom humor often do not get a warm reception from teachers Fletcher argues that we must widen the circle and give boys more choice if we want to engage them as writers How We must begin by recognizing boys and the world in which they live Boy Writers explores important questions such as What subjects are boy writers passionate about and what motivates them as writers Why do boys like to incorporate violence into their stories and how much should be allowed Why do we so often misread and misunderstand the humor boys include in their stories In addition the book looks at how handwriting can hamstring boy writers and how drawing may help welcoming boy friendly writing genres in our classrooms ways to improve our conferring with boys and more Each chapter begins with a thorough discussion of a topic and ends with a highly practical section titled What can I do in my classroom Boy Writers does not advocate promoting the interests of boys at the expense of girls Rather it argues that developing sensitivity to the unique facets of boy writers will help teachers better address the needs of all their students
