Dynastic Identity Early Modern Europe:

   Dynastic Identity in Early Modern Europe Liesbeth Geevers,Mirella Marini,2016-04-29 Aristocratic dynasties have long been regarded as fundamental to the development of early modern society and government Yet recent work by political historians has increasingly questioned the dominant role of ruling families in state formation underlining instead the continued importance and independence of individuals In order to take a fresh look at the subject this volume provides a broad discussion on the formation of dynastic identities in relationship to the lineage s own history other families within the social elite and the ruling dynasty Individual chapters consider the dynastic identity of a wide range of European aristocratic families including the Cro s Arenbergs and Nassaus from the Netherlands the Guises Lorraine of France the Sandoval Lerma in Spain the Farnese in Italy together with other lineages from Ireland Sweden and the Austrian Habsburg monarchy Tied in with this broad international focus the volume addressed a variety of related themes including the expression of ambitions and aspirations through family history the social and cultural means employed to enhance status the legal religious and political attitude toward sovereigns the role of women in the formation and reproduction of composite dynastic identities and the transition of aristocratic dynasties to royal dynasties In so doing the collection provides a platform for looking again at dynastic identity in early modern Europe and reveals how it was a compound of political religious social cultural historical and individual attitudes   Elite Women and the Italian Wars, 1494–1559 Susan Broomhall,Carolyn James,2024-04-11 The Element analyses the critical importance of elite women to the conflict conventionally known as the Italian Wars that engulfed much of Europe and the Mediterranean between 1494 and 1559 Through its considered attention to the interventions of women connected to imperial royal and princely dynasties the authors show the breadth and depth of the opportunities roles impact and influence that certain women had to shape the course of the conflict in both wartime activities and in peace making The work thus expands the ways in which the authors can think about women s participation in war and politics It makes use of a wide range of sources such as literature art and material culture as well as more conventional text forms Women s voices and actions are prioritized in making sense of evidence and claims about their activities

   Transregional Lordship and the Italian Renaissance Matthew Vester,2025-10-01 Ren de Challant whose holdings ranged from northwestern Italy to the Alps and over the mountains into what is today western Switzerland and eastern France was an Italian and transregional dynast The spatially dispersed kind of lordship that he practiced and his lifetime of service to the house of Savoy especially in the context of the Italian Wars show how the Sabaudian lands neighboring Alpine states and even regions further afield were tied to the history of the Italian Renaissance Situating Ren de Challant on the edge of the Italian Renaissance helps us to understand noble kin relations political networks finances and lordship with more precision A spatially inflected analysis of Ren s life brings to light several themes related to transregional lordship that have been obscured due to the traditional tendencies of Renaissance studies It uncovers an Italy whose boundaries extend not just into the Mediterranean but into regions beyond the Alps Gender, Family, and Politics Nicola Clark,2018-07-25 Gender Family and Politics is the first full length gender inclusive study of the Howard family one of the pre eminent families of early modern Britain Most of the existing scholarship on this aristocratic dynasty s political operation during the first half of the sixteenth century centres on the male family members and studies of the women of the early modern period tends to focus on class or geographical location Nicola Clark however places women and the question of kinship in centre stage arguing that this is necessary to understand the complexity of the early modern dynasty A nuanced understanding of women s agency dynastic identity and politics allows us to more fully understand the political social religious and cultural history of early modern Britain Prince, Pen, and Sword: Eurasian Perspectives Maaike van Berkel,Jeroen Duindam,2018-01-22 Prince Pen and Sword offers a synoptic interpretation of rulers and elites in Eurasia from the fourteenth to the eighteenth century Four core chapters zoom in on the tensions and connections at court on the nexus between rulers and religious authority on the status function and self perceptions of military and administrative elites respectively Two additional concise chapters provide a focused analysis of the construction of specific dynasties the Golden Horde and the Habsburgs and narratives of kingship found in fiction throughout Eurasia The contributors and editors authorities in their fields systematically bring together specialised literature on numerous Eurasian kingdoms and empires This book is a careful and thought provoking experiment in the global comparative and connected history of rulers and elites Patrons of the Old Faith Jaap Geraerts,2018-09-24 Patrons of the Old Faith is the first full length study on the Catholic nobility in the Dutch Republic Based on a detailed prosopographical analysis and through the examination of their marriage strategies interaction with Protestants religiosity and contributions to the Holland Mission Jaap Geraerts shows how the behaviour of the Catholic nobility was highly distinctive and differed from their co religionists and Protestant peers as it was influenced by a specific set of noble and Catholic values Due to the synthesis of their noble and confessional identities the Dutch Catholic nobility in Utrecht and Guelders acted as patrons of their faith and were instrumental for the survival of Catholicism in the Dutch Republic Virtus H. Ronnes,N.H. Bijleveld,J.C.C.F.M. van den Borne,2016 Warfare in Early Modern Europe 1450-1660 Paul E. J. Hammer,2007 The early modern period saw gunpowder weapons reach maturity and become a central feature of European warfare on land and at sea This exciting collection of essays brings together a distinguished and varied selection of modern scholarship on the transformation of waroften described as a military revolution during the period between 1450 and 1660 Constructivism and Comparative Politics Daniel M. Green,2002 This work presents an approach to the study of comparative politics that builds on the assumption that political actors and institutions operate within constructed communities of meaning which in turn interface with other such communities Canadian Slavonic Papers ,1986 Identity and Coexistence in the Early Modern Mediterranean Eric Dursteler,2000 Culture, Nation, and Identity Andreas Kappeler,Zenon E. Kohut,Frank E. Sysyn,2003 War Paul Francis Diehl,2005 Europe 1450 to 1789

Jonathan Dewald,2004 Online version of the 6 volume work published New York Charles Scribner s Sons 2004 Dynastic Colonialism Susan Broomhall,Jacqueline Van Gent,2016 Dynastic Colonialism analyses how women and men employed objects in particular places across the world during the early modern period in order to achieve the remarkable expansion of the House of Orange Nassau Susan Broomhall and Jacqueline Van Gent explore how the House emerged as a leading force during a period in which the Dutch accrued one of the greatest seaborne empires Using the concept of dynastic colonialism they explore strategic behaviours undertaken on behalf of the House of Orange Nassau through material culture in a variety of sites of interpretation from palaces and gardens to prints and teapots in Europe and beyond Using over 140 carefully selected images the authors consider a wide range of visual material and textual sources including portraits glassware tiles letters architecture and global spaces in order to rethink dynastic power and identity in gendered terms Through the House of Orange Nassau Broomhall and Van Gent demonstrate how dynasties could assert status and power by enacting a range of colonising strategies Dynastic Colonialism offers an exciting new interpretation of the complex story of the House of Orange Nassau s rise to power in the early modern period through material means that will make fascinating reading for students and scholars of early modern European history material culture and gender This book is highly illustrated throughout The print edition features the images in black and white whereas the eBook edition contains the illustrations in colour Image and Identity Dauvit Broun,Richard J. Finlay,Michael Lynch,1998 Propaganda Bertrand Taithe,Tim Thornton,1999 This work brings together a collection of articles around the concepts of propaganda and political rhetoric from the 14th century to 1999 It is divided into seven thematic and chronological sections which respond to some of the historiographical debates on these subjects Is Anybody Still a Realist? Jeffrey Legro,Andrew Moravcsik,1998 Early Modern Court Culture Erin Griffey,2021-11-29 Through a thematic overview of court culture that connects the cultural with the political confessional spatial material and performative this volume introduces the dynamics of power and culture in the early modern European court Exploring the period from 1500 to 1750 Early Modern Court Culture is cross cultural and interdisciplinary providing insights into aspects of both community and continuity at courts as well as individual identity change and difference Culture is presented as not merely a vehicle for court propaganda in promoting the monarch and the dynasty but as a site for a complex range of meanings that conferred status and virtue on the patron maker court and the wider community of elites The essays show that the court provided an arena for virtue and virtuosity intellectual and social play demonstration of moral authority and performance of social gendered confessional and dynastic identity Early Modern Court Culture moves from political structures and political players to architectural forms and spatial geographies ceremonial and ritual observances visual and material culture entertainment and knowledge With 35 contributions on subjects including gardens dress scent dance and tapestries this volume is a necessary resource for all students and scholars interested in the court in early modern Europe Europe 1450 to 1789: Macau to Pope Jonathan Dewald,2004 Online version of the 6 volume
