Early Childhood Language Arts 6th Edition:

Early Childhood Language Arts Mary Jalongo, 2014 For teachers of young children

Early Childhood Language Arts Mary Renck Jalongo, 1992 Early Childhood Language Arts Fourth Edition offers a more comprehensive look at early childhood literacy education integrating the language arts listening speaking reading and writing than any other book on the market In response to the call for evidence based reading instruction the Fourth Edition includes 36 research based teaching strategies and every chapter incorporates information on brain research bilingual education technology and the media s influences on young children Mary Renck Jalongo provides readers with a synthesis of the information on language arts gleaned from research on emergent literacy early childhood education and special education She also underscores what is being emphasized in early childhood teacher accreditation programs namely responding to the increasingly diverse needs of young language learners in inclusive settings working with parents and families and collaborating with professionals in other fields

Early Childhood Language Arts (with MyEducationKit) Mary Renck Jalongo, 2010-05-07 This volume offers a look at early childhood literacy education integrating the language arts listening speaking reading and writing It provides an overview on the improvement of language skills within the school setting gleaned from research on emergent literacy early childhood education and special education The author instructs how to respond to the increasingly diverse needs of young language learners in inclusive settings how to work with parents and families and collaborating with professionals in other fields

EARLY CHILDHOOD EXPERIENCES IN LANGUAGE ARTS, 6TH ED. JEANNE. MACHADO,

Early Childhood Language Arts Mary Renck Jalongo, 2000 Early Childhood Language Arts Second Edition is a comprehensive look at early childhood literacy education Unlike most early literacy books it includes listening speaking reading and writing with a strong children s literature emphasis throughout This text provides instructors with a synthesis of the information on language arts gleaned from research on emergent literacy early childhood education and special education It underscores what is being emphasized in early childhood teacher accreditation programs namely responding to the increasingly diverse needs of young language learners in inclusive settings working with parents and families and collaborating with professionals in other fields Each chapter provides a discussion of the key concepts in the chapter followed by case material that demonstrates how teachers families and professionals in other fields can work together to promote the literacy growth and development of a young child The content and examples throughout every chapter enable students to see how children go through the process of acquiring literacy and how literacy learning occurs with diverse groups of learners The body of every chapter concludes with a section on teacher concerns and basic strategies developmentally appropriate activities teacher self assessment and information on standards as they relate to the content of each chapter

Young Children and Families in the Information Age Kelly L. Heider, Mary Renck Jalongo, 2014-12-05 This edited book presents the most recent theory research and practice on information and technology literacy as it relates to the education of young children Because computers have made it so easy to disseminate information the amount of available information has grown at an exponential rate making it impossible for educators to prepare students for the future without teaching them how to be effective information managers and technology users Although much has been written about information literacy and technology literacy in secondary education there is very little published research about these literacies in early childhood education Recently the National Association for the Education of Young Children and the Fred Rogers Center for Early Learning and Children's Media at Saint Vincent College published a position statement on using technology and interactive media as tools in early childhood programs This statement recommends more research to better understand how young children use and learn with technology and interactive media and also to better understand any short and long term effects Many assume that today's young children are digital natives with a great understanding of technology However children may know how to operate digital technology but be unaware of its dangers or its value to extend their abilities This book argues that information and technology literacy include more than just familiarity with the digital environment They include using technology safely and ethically to demonstrate creativity and innovation to communicate and collaborate to conduct research and use information and to think critically solve problems and make decisions
