International Handbook of Leadership for Learning Tony Townsend, John MacBeath, 2011-07-10 The International Handbook of Leadership for Learning brings together chapters by distinguished authors from thirty one countries in nine different regions of the world The handbook contains nine sections that provide regional overviews a consideration of theoretical and contextual aspects system and policy approaches that promote leadership for learning with a focus on educating school leaders for learning and the role of the leader in supporting learning It also considers the challenge of educating current leaders for this new perspective and how leaders themselves can develop leadership for learning in others and in their organisations especially in diverse contexts and situations The final chapter considers what we now know about leadership for learning and looks at ways this might be further improved in the future The book provides the reader with an understanding of the rich contextual nature of learning in schools and the role of school leaders and leadership development in promoting this It concludes that the preposition for between the two readily known and understood terms of leadership and learning changes everything as it foregrounds learning and complexifies rather than simplifies what that word may mean Whereas common terms such as instructional leadership reduce learning to outcomes leadership for learning embraces a much wider developmental view of learning

The Burden of Educational Exclusion, 2010-01-01 School was nothing but a taboo for me concludes Johannah a young South African after recounting her life story Johannah is one of the early school leavers who features in this book Figures on participation in education in Africa show that despite government agreements and policies developed under the banner of Education for All this remains a remote goal In several countries programmes on Universal Primary Education have improved access to education but do those who enter school remain there until they have reached a suitable level Do they acquire enough competences at primary and secondary school to survive the tough daily life in sub Saharan countries What happens to children and young adults who leave school early What measures can be taken to prevent them from doing so This book is based on research carried out in Eastern and Southern Africa by scholars from Africa and the Netherlands who cooperated within the framework of the ESLA project The contributions to this book reflect the exchanges and discussions which took place in this research group initiated by staff of Mzumbe University in Tanzania Uganda Martyrs University and the University of Groningen in the Netherlands The group aims to go beyond figures and uncover the causes effects and stories of the young people involved as well as explore promising new strategies with which to address their needs As early school leaving is not exclusively an African problem a contribution on the Dutch situation is also included The book concludes that exclusion from education has far reaching effects not only for the young people involved but also for the society in which they live The burden of educational exclusion should be the joint responsibility of developing and developed countries The authors hope the book will contribute not only to a greater understanding of the phenomenon of early school leaving but also challenge it in terms of developing policies and programmes that can prevent educational exclusion and support those who already find themselves in such a situation Publishing Higher Degree Research Janice Orrell, David D. Curtis, 2016-08-23 This book is proof of what is possible when higher degree candidates and their supervisors collaborate to ensure publication of higher degree research one of the responsibilities that comes with higher degree candidature and supervision It transcends the limitations inherent in traditional isolationist master and apprentice relationships to reveal the transformative value of building productive networks among academics and students Written for higher degree research policy makers administrators supervisors and candidates in the field of education this book aims to provoke departmental mindfulness of the higher degree research journey and in light of this reconsideration of the nature of supervisory roles and practices It explores key research on higher degree research candidature and supervisory practices reveals the reflections of 14 higher degree candidates experiences in terms of the impact and transformations that occur as a result of undertaking research not least of which is writing for publication showcases aspects of their research in their published chapters and accords them first author status Its five sections are Publishing Higher Degree Research key research on higher degree research candidature and supervisory practices and the process of transforming students from candidates into published researchers Learning with Technology in Aboriginal education and in primary and early childhood education Professional Learning and Practice in the development of teacher research and inquiry enhancing and assuring learning quality in Indonesia and Lesotho and higher order thinking in teaching trade skills Student Learning in teaching English language in Indonesia and the place of intimation in creativity and innovation in mathematics teaching Curriculum Change in teaching University mathematics in English in Indonesia integrating graduate attributes in an Islamic University in Aceh enabling innovation in Acehnese schools and reforming assessment in Rwanda The Kingdom of Lesotho ,2006
