Shakespeare and Social Theory Bradd Shore, 2021-08-23 This book provides a bridge between Shakespeare studies and classical social theory opening up readings of Shakespeare to a new audience outside of literary studies and the humanities Shakespeare has long been known as a great thinker and this book reads his plays through the lens of an anthropologist revealing new connections between Shakespeare s plays and the lives we now lead Close readings of a selection of frequently studied plays Hamlet The Winter s Tale Romeo and Juliet A Midsummer Night s Dream Julius Caesar and King Lear engage with the texts in detail while connecting them with some of the biggest questions we all ask ourselves about love friendship ritual language human interactions and the world around us The plays are examined through various social theories including performance theory cognitive theory semiotics exchange theory and structuralism The book concludes with a consideration of how the new astronomy of his day and developments in optics changed the very idea of perspective and shaped Shakespeare's approach to embedding social theory in his dramatic texts This accessible and engaging book will appeal to those approaching Shakespeare from outside literary studies but will also be valuable to literature students approaching Shakespeare for the first time or looking for a new angle on the plays Los Angeles Magazine, 1997-08 Los Angeles magazine is a regional magazine of national stature Our combination of award winning feature writing investigative reporting service journalism and design covers the people lifestyle culture entertainment fashion art and architecture and news that define Southern California Started in the spring of 1961 Los Angeles magazine has been addressing the needs and interests of our region for 48 years The magazine continues to be the definitive resource for an affluent population that is intensely interested in a lifestyle that is uniquely Southern Californian Proceedings of the 3rd International Conference on Quantitative, Social, Biomedical and Economic Issues 2019 Christos Frangos, 2019-05-24 This year's Conference is characterized by the research contributions of Scientists from Cyprus England Saudi Arabia and Greece This year's Conference is organized by the Greek Foundation for Research in the Quantitative Social and Economic Subjects which is a non profit Company with Articles of Association registered in the Chamber of Non for profit organizations This Conference is a continuation in a broader sense of the four International Conferences which were organized by myself during the years 2003 2009 2013 and 2015 under the auspices of the Technological Educational Institute of Athens as well as the 1st and 2nd International Conference on Quantitative Social Biomedical and Economic Issues during the years 2017 2018 Athens The International Conferences of the years 2017 2018 were organized under the Auspices of the Greek Foundation for Research in the Quantitative Social and Economic Subjects which is based in Athens Greece and has links with an International group of Academics This Conference is focusing on the impact of Education on the innovation process the productivity and the well balanced development of a country The findings of Varsakelis Volume 35 Issue 7 September 2006 Pages 1083 1090 ELSEVIER support the hypothesis that the higher the investment of a society in the quality of education the higher the output of innovation activity Furthermore the development level of the governmental institutions is positively correlated with innovation activity The aim of this Conference is to become a forum for the analysis of subjects related to the Quantitative Social Biomedical and Economic Sciences the present state in Greece for the sectors of Education Health Innovative Business and the lessons learnt from them in the context of the serious economic crisis in Europe and particularly in Greece This Conference also is the opportunity for many highly respected scientists to present and exchange ideas in their respective research areas with the aim of initiating new joint projects The new developments in the sectors of contemporary Science and Economy are important and the need for a clear and responsible information is very high regarding also the possibility of fake news through the Internet The Congressional Globe United States.
