Current Practices in Workplace and Organizational Learning Bente Elkjaer, Maja Marie Lotz, Niels Christian Mossfeldt Nickelsen, 2022-01-01 The central assumption that guides this book is that research and practice about learning at the workplace has recently lost its critical edge This book explores what has happened to workplace learning and organizational learning and studies what has replaced it In addition the book discusses to what extent there are reasons to revitalize it Today themes such as innovation co creation and knowledge sharing seem to have become preferred and referred to as theoretical fields as well as fields of practice In several chapters of this book it is argued that the critical power of learning could be regained by starting a new discussion of how these new fields of practice can be substantiated by topics such as learning arrangements learning mechanisms and learning strategies Hence the aim of this book is to both advance and recapture our knowledge of learning in today s increasingly complex world of work and organizing The contributions in this work do so by revisiting classic research on workplace and organizational learning and discussing how insights from this body of literature evokes new meaning It sets the stage for new agendas and rethinks current practices that are entangled in activities such as innovation co creation knowledge sharing or other currently widespread fields of practice

Advancing Futures James A. Dator, 2002-04-30 What is Futures Studies what are the theories and methods underlying the field What are its basic concepts and metaphors and how is it related to other academic fields These are the core questions addressed in this book by a comprehensive assembly of distinguished scholars They explore the enigma of why Futures Studies despite its growing maturity as an intellectual endeavor after more than three decades of groundbreaking work still struggles for institutional acceptance Together these contributors paint a picture of Futures Studies not so much a product of the stale intellectual heritage of the 20th century but as a vibrant harbinger of intellectual perspectives sure to gain wider currency in the 21st Drawing on their backgrounds in fields as diverse as political science history sociology anthropology economics psychology management and human ecology this international line up of contributors includes world systems theorist Immanuel Wallerstein philosopher Peter Manicas management professor Bill Halal and industrial sociologist Arthur Shostak

Island Tourism in Asia and the Pacific World Tourism Organization, United Nations Environment Programme, 2001 The biggest challenge the World Tourism Organization predicts for tourism in Asia and the Pacific in the new millennium is sustainability This assertion is buttressed by the fact that the volume of international visitors expected to visit the regions natural and cultural sites would undoubtedly have a remarkable impact on its social cultural and natural environments Owing to their relatively small size and fragile nature islands in particular are more prone to feel the weight of the negative sides to the increased volume of tourists to the region
