Galatians can be divided in this way Love and peace and joy are all to God God looks for that fruit from each one of His children and that is the kind of fruit which is acceptable with Him Without that we can not please God He wants above everything else that we possess love peace and joy And then the next three goodness long suffering and gentleness are towards man That is our outward life to those that we are coming in contact with continually daily hourly The next three faith

The Publishers Weekly ,2002 Library Journal ,2009 Working for God! Andrew Murray,2013-09 This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book without typos from the publisher Not indexed Not illustrated 1901 edition Excerpt INTRODUCTION nnHE object of this little book is first of all to remind all Christian workers of the greatness and the glory of the work in which God gives a share It is nothing less than that work of bringing men back to their God at which God finds His highest glory and blessedness As we see that it is God s own work we have to work out that He works it through us that in our doing it His glory rests on us and we glorify Him we shall count it our joy to give ourselves to live only and wholly for it The aim of the book at the same time is to help those who complain and perhaps do not even know to complain that they are apparently labouring in vain to find out what may be the cause of so much failure God s work must be done in God s way and in God s power It is b spiritual work to be done by spiritual men in the power of the Spirit The clearer our insight into and the more complete our submission to God s laws of work the surer and the richer will be our joy and our reward in it Along with this I have had in view the great number of Christians who practically take no real part in the service of their Lord They have never understood that as the chief characteristic of the Divine life in God and Christ is love and its work of blessing men the Divine life in us can show itself in no other way I have tried to show that it is God s will that every believer without exception whatever be his position in life gives himself wholly to live and work for God I have also written in the hope that some who have the training of others in Christian life and work may find thoughts that will be of use to them in teaching the imperative duty the urgent need the Divine blessedness of a life given to God s service and to waken The New Yorker ,2001 School Library Journal ,2008

Waiting on God Andrew Murray,2013-09 This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book without typos from the publisher Not indexed Not illustrated 1896 edition Excerpt mighty power of God in the world is the return to our true place the place that belongs to us both in creation and redemption the place of absolute and unceasing dependence upon God Let us strive to see what the elements are that make up this most blessed and needful waiting upon God it may help us to discover the reasons why this grace is so little cultivated and to feel how infinitely desirable it is that the Church that we ourselves should at any price learn its blessed secret The deep need for this waiting on God lies equally in the nature of man and the nature of God God as Creator formed man to be a vessel in which He could show forth His power and goodness Man was not to have in himself a fountain of life or strength or happiness the ever living and only living One was each moment to be the Communicator to him of all that he needed Man's glory and blessedness was not to be independent or dependent upon himself but dependent on a God of such infinite riches and love Man was to have the joy of receiving every moment out of the fulness of God This was his blessedness as an unfallen creature When he fell from God he was still more absolutely dependent on Him There was not the slightest hope of his recovery out of his state of death but in God His power and mercy It is God alone who began the work of redemption it is God alone who continues and carries it on each moment in each individual believer Even in the regenerate man there is no power of goodness in himself he has and can have nothing that he does not each moment receive and waiting on God is just as indispensable and must be just as continuous and unbroken as the breathing that maintains his natural life It is then because Christians do not
