High Alyn Shipton,1999 Dizzy Gillespie was one of the most important and best loved musicians in jazz history With his dark glasses goatee jive talk and upraised trumpet bell he was the hipster who most personified bebop The musical heir to Louis Armstrong he created the basic jazz trumpet playing style and dazzled aficionados and popular audiences alike for over 50 years In this first full biography Alyn Shipton covers all aspects of Dizzy s remarkable life and career taking us through his days as a flashy trumpet player in the swing bands of the 1930s his innovative bebop work in the 1940s the worldwide fame and adoration he earned through his big band tours in the 1950s and the many recordings and performances which defined a career that extended into the early 1990s Along the way Shipton convincingly argues that Gillespie rather than Charlie Parker as is widely believed had the greatest role in creating bebop playing in key jazz groups teaching the music to others and helping to develop the first original bebop repertory Shipton traces the Gillespie Parker relationship starting in the bands of Earl Hines and Billy Eckstine in the early 1940s to their famous 1944 46 group that set the form for bebop and culminating in their extraordinary concert at Massey Hall in Toronto in 1953 Shipton also explores the dark side of Dizzy's mostly sunny personal life his womanizing the illegitimate daughter he fathered and supported now a respected jazz singer in her own right and his sometimes needless cruelty to others For anyone interested in jazz and one of its most innovative and appealing figures Groovin' High is essential reading The 20th Century A-GI Frank N.
