Interaction in Digital News Media Mario

Pérez-Montoro,2018-09-12 Digital News Media DNM are characterized by their efforts to provide consumers with new content interaction experiences which contrast with the more passive experiences provided by traditional news media This book directly addresses these interaction experiences taking the reader from underlying principles to actual practices To meet this objective the book undertakes a characterization of interactivity in DNM and explores the boundaries between storytelling and direct data access It examines information visualization trends present in the media and practices in non fiction storytelling in the context of the current wave of VR technology Moreover it addresses how UX research and evaluation methods can be applied to inform the design of interactive media It also analyzes the concept of Newsonomics and it examines the reform of intellectual property law and legislation governing authors rights The book concludes by analyzing the scientific production of interaction over the last 10 years extracting the main conclusions and highlighting the lessons that can be extracted from the previous chapters

Telecinematic Stylistics Christian Hoffmann,Monika

Kirner-Ludwig,2020-05-14 Over the last two decades the study of discourse in film and television has become one of the most promising research avenues in stylistics and pragmatics due to the dazzling variety of source material and the huge pragmatic range within it Meanwhile with the advent of streaming and the box set film and television themselves are becoming separated by an increasingly blurred line This volume closes a long standing gap in stylistics research bringing together a book level pragmastylistic showcase It presents current developments from the field from two complementary perspectives looking stylistically at the discourse in film and the discourse of and around film This latter phrase comes to mean the approaches which try to account for the pragmatic effects induced by cinematography This might be the camera work or the lighting or the mise en sc ne or montage The volume takes a multimodal approach looking at word movement and gesture in keeping with modern stylistics The volume shows how pragmatic themes and methods are adapted and applied to films including speech acts im politeness implicature and context In this way it provides systematic insights into
