Schillace,2025-08-05 A delightful new cozy crime novel from the award winning author of the twisty engaging and thoroughly unexpected Deanna Raybourn The Framed Women of Ardmore House An amateur autistic sleuth A wry English detective A murder case that thrusts them both into the wealthy world of the rare artifacts trade Jo Jones can't seem to catch a break She'd hoped that trading in her city life for the cozy peaceful hills of North Yorkshire to take over her family estate would finally be her chance for a fresh start Instead she's been thrust further into the past than she thought possible The estate property is littered with traces of ancestors that Jo never knew existed including a mysterious woman depicted in a half destroyed painting inside the estate and also including Jo's late uncle who may hold the key to her cryptic family history Add to all this the gossip town politics that Jo's forced to navigate as a neurodivergent transplanted American And that's not even getting to the murder yet When the prickly town detective James MacAdams discovers a body in the woods with coincidental ties to Jo Jones they're forced to team up on the case The clues will lead them into the wealthiest locales of Yorkshire from sparkling glass hotels to luxury property sites to elite country clubs But below the glittering surfaces Jo and MacAdams discover darker schemes brewing Local teens many of them international refugees are disappearing left and right and each case is somehow linked to a shady architectural firm which also happened to employ the dead man from the woods What began as an unusual murder case plunges Jo and MacAdams into the underground world of rare artifacts and antique trading and the murderer may not be finished yet The Elementary School Library Collection, Phases 1-2-3,1998 Stay Younger.
