Do and Dare Horatio Alger (Jr.),1911 Do and Dare Horatio Alger,2019-09-25 Reproduction of the original Do and Dare by Horatio Alger Do and Dare Jr Horatio Alger,2016-11-11 Hero Herbert Carr is the son of a war widow who had assumed her husband's place as postmaster of the small rural town in Waynesboro. Widow Carr is upset because Squire Walsingham is using his political influence to take the post away from the widow to put into the hands of his nephew Ebenezer Graham, the local miser and shopkeeper. Walsingham succeeds in his efforts and the post is given to Mr Graham. Since Mr Graham is uncertain of how to run a post office, he offers to hire Herbert for a pittance to run things until he learns what must be done. However, Mr Graham's son Eben Graham, a fop spendthrift, returns from Boston where he had been a shop clerk. Fired because of his own arrogance, he returns home seeking employment. Mr Graham fires Herbert and hires his son. Herbert is at first dismayed but then encounters his patron George Melville, a young man who is incredibly wealthy; the amount of his fortune is never disclosed. He had trained to be a lawyer but was forced to abandon his practice due to consumption. He offers Herbert an extravagant amount weekly to engage him in outdoor activities to cure his illness. Henry is extremely happy with this opportunity to care for his mother and readily agrees. When Eben hears about Herbert's windfall, he is outraged, feeling that he would be the better companion. After going to Melville's hotel suite and asking him for Herbert's job and being refused, he organizes a plot of false accusation to have Herbert arrested on charges of theft from the post office. Although Herbert is taken before the judge, his previous good behavior convinces all involved that he is innocent. Furthermore, George Melville uses his education in law to prove that Eben was the true thief in cross examination. Do and Dare Horatio Alger (Jr.), 2002-10 First published in 1884 by Porter

Coates Philadelphia Do and Dare Alger Horatio, Horatio Jr Jr Alger, 2013-07-11 Herbert did not look forward with very joyful anticipations to the new engagement he had formed. He knew very well that he should not like Ebenezer Graham as an employer but it was necessary that he should earn something for the income was now but two dollars a week. He was sorry too to displace Tom Tripp but upon this point his uneasiness was soon removed for Tom dropped in just after Mr Graham had left the house and informed Herbert that he was to go to work the next day for a farmer in the neighborhood at a dollar and a half per week and board besides. I am glad to hear it, Tom said. Herbert heartily didn't want to feel that I was depriving you of employment. You are welcome to my place in the store, said Tom. I'm glad to give it up. Mr Graham seemed to think I was made of iron and I could work like a machine without getting tired. I hope he pays you more than a dollar and a half a week. He has agreed to pay me three dollars, said Herbert.

Do and Dare Horatio Alger, 2013-05-25 If we could only keep the post office mother we should be all right, said Herbert Carr as he and his mother sat together in the little sitting room of the plain cottage which the two had occupied ever since he was a boy of five. Yes, Herbert, but I am afraid there won't be much chance of it. Who would want to take it from you, mother? Men are selfish, Herbert, and there is no office however small that is not sought after. What was the income last year, inquired Herbert. Mrs Carr referred to a blank book lying on the table in which the post office accounts were kept and answered Three hundred and ninety eight dollars and fifty cents. I shouldn't think that would be much of an inducement to an able bodied man who could work at any business. Your father was glad to have it. Yes, mother, but he had lost an arm in the war and could not engage in any business that required both hands. That is true, Herbert, but I am afraid there will be more than one who will be willing to relieve me of the duties. Old Mrs Allen called at the office to day and told me she understood that there was a movement on foot to have Ebenezer Graham appointed.

Do and Dare - a Brave Boy's Fight for Fortune Horatio Alger, 2021-12-02 Do and Dare Horatio Alger, Jr, 2020-04-29 If we could only keep the post office mother we should be all right, said Herbert Carr as he and his mother sat together in the little sitting room of the plain cottage which the two had occupied ever since he was a boy of five Yes Herbert but I am afraid there won't be much chance of it Who would want to take it from you mother Men are selfish Herbert and there is no office however small that is not sought after What was the income last year inquired Herbert Mrs Carr referred to a blank book lying on the table in which the post office accounts were kept and answered Three hundred and ninety eight dollars and fifty cents I shouldn't think that would be much of an inducement to an able bodied man who could work at any business Your father was glad to have it

Do and Dare Horatio Alger, Jr., 2021-02-21 Herbert left the house of Squire Walsingham in a sober frame of mind He saw clearly that his mother would not long remain in office and without her official income they would find it hard to get along To be sure she received a pension of eight dollars a month in consideration of her husband's services in the war but eight dollars would not go far towards supporting their family small as it was There were other means of earning a living to be sure but Wayneboro was an agricultural town mainly and unless he hired out on a farm there seemed no way open to him while the little sewing his mother might be able to procure would probably pay her less than a dollar a week The blow fell sooner than he expected In the course of the next week Mrs Carr was notified that Ebenezer Graham had been appointed her successor and she was directed to turn over the papers and property of the office to him She received the official notification by the afternoon mail and in the evening she was favored by a call from her successor Ebenezer Graham was a small man with insignificant mean looking features including a pair of weazel like eyes and a turned up nose It did not require a skillful physiognomist to read his character in his face Meanness was stamped upon it in unmistakable characters Good evening Mr Graham said the widow gravely Good evening ma'am said the storekeeper I've called to see you Mrs Carr about the post office I presume you have heard I have heard that you are to be my successor Just so As long as your husband was alive I didn't want to step into his shoes But you are willing to step into mine said Mrs Carr smiling faintly Just so that is the government appear to think a man ought to be in charge of so responsible a position I shall be glad if you manage the office better than I have done You see ma'am it stands to reason that a man is better fitted for business than a woman said Ebenezer Graham in a smooth tone for he wanted to get over this rather awkward business as easily as possible Women you know was made to adorn the domestic circles et cetera
