Crafting Contemporary Documentaries and Docuseries for Global Screens Phoebe Hart, 2024-01-08 This book explores the industrial and personal challenges faced by filmmakers in bringing the current worldwide craze for documentary films and series to screens small and large Utilizing a number of case studies drawn from in depth interviews with acclaimed documentary directors producers and screenwriters from around the world Phoebe Hart offers a thematic analysis to reveal the risks and opportunities for practitioners Hart examines these themes in the context of current scholarship to provide insight into the modes and methods of making factual screen content as she engages with the documentary form and the marking of it acquisition of mastery and inspiration and specific rituals and habits of practice From the unique vantage point of being a practitioner that is being both a successful documentary filmmaker and a recognized screen researcher and teacher Hart ultimately argues for greater support of filmmakers and pursuit of a deeper understanding of creative processes

Archival Storytelling Sheila Curran Bernard, Kenn Rabin, 2020-04-28 Fully revised and updated Archival Storytelling second edition is a timely pragmatic look at the use of audiovisual materials available to filmmakers and scholars from the earliest photographs of the 19th century to the work of media makers today Whether you're a top Hollywood filmmaker or a first time documentarian at some point you are going to want to find use and license third party materials images audio or music that you yourself did not create to use them in your work This book explains what's involved in researching and licensing visuals and music and exactly what media makers need to know when filming in a world crowded with rights protected images and sounds Filled with insights from filmmakers archivists and intellectual property experts this second edition defines key terms such as copyright fair use public domain and orphan works It guides readers through the complex archival process and challenges them to become not only archival users but also archival and copyright activists This book is an essential resource for both students and professionals from seasoned filmmakers to those creating their first projects offering practical advice for how to effectively and ethically draw on the wealth of cultural materials that surround us Global Perspectives on Indigenous Film and Literature Amar Ramesh Wayal, A. P. Anupama, 2025-09-22 This edited volume comprehensively explores narrative survival in Indigenous film and literature forging a literary and transitional approach to native writing It navigates the evolution of Indigenous voices spanning the oral tradition and literary forms from colonial times to the present It covers a range of issues related to indigenous inequalities and diversities in film and literature With chapters from global perspectives including North America Canada New Zealand and South Asia it ensures an inclusive exploration of indigenous narratives The diverse chapters address topics such as the aboriginal experience residential school legacy the invisible nation of Algonquins tribal songs decolonial futures caste survival narrative trauma and other marginalized groups such as low castes linguistic minorities and Adivasis tribals The book focuses on innovative concepts to understand the study of a particular indigenous group in isolation from others and more than the conventional comparative study of different indigenous groups It deals with the challenges of achieving local indigenous rights and identities It is a valuable resource for social science and humanities scholars particularly for indigenous scholars development professionals and administrators interested in the issues related to social diversity and indigeneity in a global setting

Looking with Robert Gardner Rebecca Meyers, William Rothman, Charles Warren, 2016-09-20 During his lifetime Robert Gardner 1925 2014 was often pigeonholed as an ethnographic filmmaker then criticized for failing to conform to the genre's conventions conventions he radically challenged With the release of his groundbreaking film Dead Birds in 1963 Gardner established himself as one of the world's most extraordinary independent filmmakers working in a unique border area between ethnography the essay film and poetic experimental cinema Richly illustrated Looking with Robert Gardner assesses the range and magnitude of Gardner's achievements not only as a filmmaker but also as a still photographer writer educator and champion of independent cinema The contributors give critical attention to Gardner's most ambitious films such as Dead Birds 1963 New Guinea Rivers of Sand 1975 Ethiopia and Forest of Bliss 1986 India as well as lesser known films that equally exemplify his mode of seeking anthropological understanding through artistic means They also attend to his films about artists including his self depiction in Still Journey On 2011 to his roots in experimental film and his employment of experimental procedures and to his support of independent filmmakers through the Harvard Film Study Center and the television series Screening Room which provided an opportunity for numerous important film and video artists to present and discuss their work

True South Jon Else, 2017-01-24 TRUE SOUTH does several things at once On one level it's a biography On another it's a lucid recap of many of the signal events of the civil rights movement A warm and intelligent book The New York Times No one is better suited to write this moving account of perhaps the greatest American documentary series ever made Else tells the story with the compassion and eloquence it deserves Adam Hochschild author of KING LEOPOLD S GHOST BURY THE CHAINS and TO END ALL WARS The inside story of Eyes on the Prize one of the most important and influential TV shows in history Published on the 30th anniversary of the initial broadcast which reached 100 million viewers Henry Hampton s 1987 landmark multipart television series Eyes on the Prize an eloquent plainspoken chronicle of the civil rights movement is now the classic narrative of that history Before Hampton the movement s history had been written or filmed by whites and weighted heavily toward Dr King s telegenic leadership Eyes on the Prize told the story from the point of view of ordinary people inside the civil rights movement Hampton shifted the focus from victimization to strength from white saviors to black courage He recovered and permanently fixed the images we now all remember but had been lost at the time Selma and Montgomery pickets and fire hoses ballot boxes and mass meetings Jon Else was Hampton s series producer and his moving book focuses on the tumultuous eighteen months in 1985 and 1986 when Eyes on the Prize was finally created It s a point where many wires cross the new telling of African American history the complex mechanics of documentary making the rise of social justice film and the politics of television And because Else like Hampton and many of the key staffers was himself a veteran of the movement his book braids together battle tales from their own experiences as civil rights workers in the south in the 1960s Hampton was not afraid to show the movement s raw realities conflicts between secular and religious leaders the shift toward black power and armed black resistance in the face of savage white violence It is all on the screen and the fight to get it all into the films was at times as ferocious as the history being depicted Henry Hampton utterly changed the way social history is told taught and remembered today The Independent Filmmaker's Law and Business Guide Jon M.

Garon,2021-08-03 Today s independent and digital filmmaking demands a clear guide to the business and legal aspects of the art What fundraising options are available to a filmmaker When should a filmmaker establish a corporation or limited liability company How do screenwriters protect their work What are a director s legal obligations to the producer cast and crew and what are their obligations in return This indispensable resource addresses the legal financial and organizational questions that an independent or guerrilla filmmaker must face and the problems that will doom a project if left unanswered It demystifies issues such as founding a film company obtaining financing preparing a budget securing locations shooting granting screen credits and distributing exhibiting and marketing a film Newly updated and expanded this third edition explores concepts such as integrating social media crowd funding and nonprofit status funding diversity inclusion and compensation equity and distribution via streaming services Appendixes provide sample contracts and riders copyright circulars Documentary Filmmakers Statement of Best Practices in Fair Use and more Telecinematic Stylistics Christian Hoffmann,Monika Kirner-Ludwig,2020-05-14 Over the last two decades the study of discourse in film and television has become one of the most promising research avenues in stylistics and pragmatics due to the dazzling variety of source material and the huge pragmatic range within it Meanwhile with the advent of streaming and the box set film and television themselves are becoming separated by an increasingly blurred line This volume closes a long standing gap in stylistics research bringing together a book level pragmatylistic showcase It presents current developments from the field from two complementary perspectives looking stylistically at the discourse in film and the discourse of and around film This latter phrase comes to mean the approaches which try to account for the pragmatic effects induced by cinematography This might be the camera work or the lighting or the mise en scene or montage The volume takes a multimodal approach looking at word movement and gesture in keeping with modern stylistics The volume shows how pragmatic themes and methods are adapted and applied to films including speech acts im politeness implicature and context In this way it provides systematic insights into how meanings are displayed enhanced suppressed and negotiated in both film and televisual arts
