Dystopian Literature M. Keith Booker, 1994-05-25 Dystopian literature is a potent vehicle for criticizing existing social conditions and political systems While utopian literature portrays ideal worlds dystopian literature depicts the flaws and failures of imaginative societies Often these societies are related to utopias and the dystopian writers have chosen to reveal shortcomings of those social systems previously considered ideal This reference overviews dystopian theory and summarizes and analyzes numerous dystopian works By reviewing the critical thought of particular dystopian theorists the beginning of the volume provides a theoretical context for the remainder of the book Because dystopian literature is so closely related to utopian writing the reference profiles and discusses eight important utopian works The rest of the book includes entries for numerous dystopian novels plays and films Each entry summarizes the work and discusses dystopian themes The entries include short bibliographies with full bibliographic information provided at the end of the volume This comprehensive guide covers the full period from Thomas More's Utopia to the present day

Utopias and Dystopias in the Fiction of H. G. Wells and William Morris Emelyne Godfrey, 2016-12-08 This book is about the fiercely contrasting visions of two of the nineteenth century's greatest utopian writers A wide ranging interdisciplinary study it emphasizes that space is a key factor in utopian fiction often a barometer of mankind's successful relationship with nature or an indicator of danger Emerging and critically acclaimed scholars consider the legacy of two great utopian writers exploring their use of space and time in the creation of sites in which contemporary social concerns are investigated and reordered A variety of locations is featured including Morris's quasi fourteenth century London the lush and corrupted island a routed and massacred English countryside the high rises of the future and the vertiginous landscape of another Earth beyond the stars
