Exclusion From Participation In International Organisations Exclusion From Participation In International Organisations:

Exclusion from Participation in International Organisations Konstantinos D. Magliveras, 2023-07-10 This volume deals with expulsion from and suspension of membership rights in international organisations This is an area of the law of international organisations which has attracted limited attention by academic writers The book examines some 35 different international organisations by analysing the relevant provisions in their constitutive instruments and where available discussing the practice Additionally it describes in considerable detail the practice of rejecting delegations credentials as a means of excluding Member States from participation Moreover it suggests solutions for those international organisations lacking expulsion and or suspension clauses by applying the Vienna Convention on the Law of Treaties and the theory of countermeasures in international law especially as codified by the International Law Commission Finally the book offers a model expulsion and suspension clause to be incorporated in existing or future international organisations

The Participation of States in International Organisations Alison Duxbury, 2011-02-10 The admission of a state to membership is an important decision for an international organisation In making this determination organisations are increasingly promoting the observance of human rights and democratic governance as relevant principles They have also applied the same criteria in resolving the question of whether existing members should be excluded from an organisation's processes Through a systematic examination of the records proceedings and practice of international organisations in this book Alison Duxbury examines the role and legitimacy of human rights and democracy as membership criteria A diverse range of examples is discussed including the membership policies and practice of the League of Nations and the United Nations the admission of the Central and Eastern European states to the European Union developments in regional organisations in Africa Asia and the Americas and the exclusion of members from the UN specialised agencies
