Education in Thailand Gerald W. Fry, 2018-11-01 This interdisciplinary book offers a critical analysis of Thai education and its evolution providing diverse perspectives and theoretical frameworks In the past five decades Thailand has seen impressive economic success and it is now a middle income country that provides development assistance to poorer countries However educational and social development have lagged considerably behind its globally recognized economic success This comprehensive book covers each level of education such as higher and vocational technical education and such topics as internationalization inequalities and disparities alternative education non formal and informal education multilingual education educational policy and planning and educational assessment The 25 Thai and 8 international contributors to the volume include well known academics and practitioners Thai education involves numerous paradoxes which are identified and explained While Thailand has impressively expanded its educational system quantitatively with much massification quality problems persist at all levels As such the final policy oriented summary chapter suggests strategies to enable Thailand to escape the middle income trap and enhance the quality of its education to ensure its long term developmental success

Research Universities in Africa Cloete, Nico, Bunting, Ian, 2018-11-09 From the early 2000s a new discourse emerged in Africa and the international donor community that higher education was important for development in Africa Within this zeitgeist of converging interests a range of agencies agreed that a different collaborative approach to linking higher education to development was necessary This led to the establishment of the Higher Education Research and Advocacy Network in Africa Herana to concentrate on research and advocacy about the possible role and contribution of universities to development in Africa This book is the final publication to emerge from the Herana project The project has also published more than 100 articles chapters reports manuals and datasets and many presentations have been delivered to share insights gained from the work done by Herana Given its prolific dissemination it seems reasonable to ask whether this fourth and final publication will offer the reader anything new This book is certainly different from previous publications in several respects First it is the only book to include an analysis of eight African universities based on the full 15 years of empirical data collected by the project Second previous books and reports were published mid project This book has benefited from an extended gestation period allowing the authors and contributors to reflect on the project without the distractions associated with managing and participating in a large scale project For the first time some of those who have been involved in Herana since its inception have had the opportunity to at least make an attempt to see part of the wood for the trees Different does not necessarily mean new An emphasis on the newness of the data and perspectives presented in this book is important because it shows that it is more than a historical record of a donor funded project Rather each chapter in this book brings to a lesser or greater extent something new to our understanding of universities research and development in Africa
