Immigrant Ambassadors Julia Meredith Hess,2009-03-23 The Tibetan diaspora began fifty years ago when the current Dalai Lama fled Lhasa and established a government in exile in India For those fifty years the vast majority of Tibetans have kept their stateless refugee status in India and Nepal as a reminder to themselves and the world that Tibet is under Chinese occupation and that they are committed to returning someday In the 1990s the U S Congress passed legislation that allowed 1 000 Tibetans and their families to immigrate to the United States a decade later the total U S population includes some 10 000 Tibetans Not only is the social fact of the migration its historical and political contexts of interest but also how migration and resettlement in the U S reflect emergent identity formations among members of a stateless society Immigrant Ambassadors examines Tibetan identity at a critical juncture in the diaspora s expansion and argues that increased migration to the West is both facilitated and marked by changing understandings of what it means to be a twenty first century Tibetan deterritorialized activist and cosmopolitan The Hindu Index ,2004 Indian National Bibliography ,2004 Diaspora ,2003 Guide to Indian Periodical Literature ,2006
