Experiencing God in a time of crisis Sarah Bachelard, 2017 In this book Experiencing God in a time of Crisis Sarah Bachelard suggests a way that can help us go through those critical times in our lives moments of profound loss grief and fear in which our frameworks of sense seem to collapse and no longer enable us to convey meaning to overwhelming events or even to life itself Crisis however may be seen as a call or opportunity to reshape our identity and open us to our deepest possibilities The practice of meditation and contemplative living she says may help us endure and integrate such turning point experiences and bring our life and identity into a deeper wholeness The practice helps us to let go of our old ways and enter the unknown realm of poverty of spirit We find freedom and a new sense of being alive and with a deepened capacity to be with and to love others

The Critical Journey Janet O. Hagberg, Robert A. Guelich, The Critical Journey at its core is a description of the spiritual journey our response to our faith in God with the resulting changes that follow In this book authors Janet O Hagberg and Robert A Guelich address the following issues the struggle to find meaning and wholeness the crisis of values and identity at mid life the quest for self actualization the healing of early religious experiences questions about the spiritual journey Their goal is to help us understand where we are on our individual faith journeys and also appreciate where others are in theirs The Critical Journey does not reveal exactly how or when we need to move along in our personal pilgrimages nor does it offer formulas for spiritual growth Rather it describes six phases of the spiritual journey and illustrates how people act and think while in these stages This is an excellent guide for those who are wrestling with their faith and wondering how others have resolved their dark nights of the soul Here is an answer for those who have wondered why everyone doesn't respond in the same manner to the message of the Gospel
