Connecting Language and Disciplinary Knowledge in English for Specific Purposes Alissa J. Hartig,2017-08-11 How are language and disciplinary knowledge connected in the English for Legal Purposes ELP classroom and how far should ELP practitioners go in supporting students acquisition of the conceptual frameworks that shape the genres they are learning This book presents a pedagogical model for incorporating these conceptual frameworks into disciplinary language instruction and follows four focal participants as they learn to read and write new genres in a second language and disciplinary culture By examining not just students written texts but also their reading practices and interactions in class and in tutoring sessions the book traces the ways in which disciplinary knowledge and language interact as students develop academic literacy in a new disciplinary community Throughout the book the discipline of law is used as a lens for examining broader connections between language culture and disciplinary knowledge and their relevance for English for Specific Purposes and writing in the disciplines

Developing International EFL/ESL Scholarly Writers Donna Bain Butler,2015-03-30 This study had a research purpose and a pedagogical purpose Research disclosed the dynamic changing nature of learner internal and learner external variables that influence strategic competence for developing EFL ESL writers This competence was found necessary for international graduate students to move from writer centered learning to reader centered communication The research instruments proved to be practical tools for guiding learners processes of learning and writing a scholarly paper or article and avoiding plagiarism The implication for teachers and program administrators is a systematic approach for developing self regulation control in EFL ESL writing The first part of the book reports on the mixed methods quantitative and qualitative research The second part gives an in depth report of the 6 cases used in the research The third part presents tools for systematically developing self regulation in scholarly and academic writing with a student and teacher checklists for formative assessment that are valid and reliable and b a model syllabus for teachers that can be adapted across disciplines and genres These tools deal with learning strategies and their applications to writing and writing instruction     Legal Writing ,2000     Yearbook of Experts, Authorities and Spoke Mitchell P.
