Explorations In Cultural Competence Journeys To The Four Directions:

Explorations in Cultural Competence Hilary N. Weaver, 2005 EXPLORATIONS IN CULTURAL COMPETENCE JOURNEY TO THE FOUR DIRECTIONS provides a fresh look at diversity by presenting a more historical and sociological perspective that speaks to the evolution of diversity consciousness within social work Weaver provides examples and practice skills for specific populations to help you learn how to apply these concepts and practices in a culturally competent manner

Cultural Competency Training in a Global Society Richard H. Dana, James Allen, 2008-11-13 Cultural competence is more than an admirable goal it is an essential skill set for mental health professionals working in a diverse global society marked by crisis and trauma It is essential for clinicians to understand the intricate mix of history and self concept identity and tradition that are central not only for ameliorating psychological problems but to foster psychological health and well being As the definition of culture takes on broader meanings at once embracing multiple identities and increasing globalization Cultural Competency Training in a Global Society brings a vital perspective and practical understanding to clinical counseling and school psychologists as well as to graduate students entering these fields By describing a comprehensive training model for professional education and practice in the United States with ethnic minority groups indigenous populations immigrants and refugees this book has relevance for other multicultural societies because the implications are multidisciplinary in focus and potentially international in scope The existing and emergent global multicultural populations described in this book represent the neglected human faces of economic globalization Among the topics covered Requirements for professional training in cultural competency Research basis for cultural competency training International resources and their usage in training and practice Multicultural assessment in the service of intervention Evaluating cultural competency training

To be One in Christ Fernando A. Ortiz, Gerard J. McGlone, 2015 The priests and pastoral ministers of our day increasingly reflects the multicultural multi ethnic and multi lingual nature of the church in the United States For a variety of reasons they come from diverse ethnic backgrounds and countries of origin Seminaries and religious communities are welcoming international candidates with the vision that diversity strengthens the character and mission of the church Yet this ecclesial diversity also comes with unique challenges To Be One in Christ is a groundbreaking resource that delves into the questions raised by these complexities and provides an in depth analysis from theological sociological psychological cultural and Protestant perspectives Gerard McGlone and Fernando Ortiz are both nationally recognized experts on the integration of psychology and spirituality in priestly life The book they have edited investigates issues answer questions and provide insights on the increasingly multicultural settings and programs affecting seminary and religious formation The comprehensive resource will be welcome by vocation directors seminary formators clergy religious and seminarians

TEMAS (Tell-Me-A-Story) Assessment in Multicultural Societies Giuseppe Costantino, Richard H. Dana, Robert G. Malgady, 2020-08-26 Ethnic minority children now comprise over 75 percent of students in 100 of the largest cities in the United States However these students have not been given equal access to nor benefited from the contemporary mental health system as have their non minority peers TEMAS Tell Me A Story Assessment in Multicultural Societies examines the health mental care system in which professional service providers including psychologists labor to offer quality care for youth in the United States The authors ardently support the use of the TEMAS assessment instrument as a useful tool for diagnosis of all youngsters particularly its use on the growing population of minority children and adolescents Part I presents a rationale and context for employing TEMAS Introductory chapters describe the mental health status of the population at risk as well as systems of care for youth where assessment and intervention are components Topics to follow highlight a history of positive TEMAS test reviews with the detail required by instructors for preparing dedicated TEMAS courses The volume thoroughly outlines cross cultural studies and illustrates case examples of European American Hispanic Latino Asian American and forensic studies TEMAS Tell Me A Story Assessment in Multicultural Societies brings practical insight to instructors who teach standard assessment courses clinicians counselors and school psychologists assessment specialists and administrators concerned with mental health services designed for children and adolescents Drinking from the Same Well Lydia F. Johnson,2011-05-09 Drinking from the Same Well is designed for those who seek a praxis oriented theological grounding in the exploration of cross cultural perspectives in the field of pastoral care and counseling It traverses the broad terrain of cultural analysis and also explores in depth a number of discrete cross cultural issues in pastoral counseling related to communication conflict empathy family dynamics suffering and healing Cultural analysis and theological reflection are situated alongside numerous case studies of persons and situations that en flesh the concepts being discussed and readers are invited to engage personally with the material through a variety of focus questions and reflective exercises This book can serve as a helpful textbook for seminarians and a useful guide for pastors and priests church study groups multicultural parishes and anyone engaged in helping ministries with persons from other cultures The goal is to develop culturally competent pastoral caregivers by providing a comprehensive and practical overview of the generative themes and challenges in cross cultural pastoral care Women's Journey to Empowerment in the 21st Century

Kristen Zaleski,Annalisa V. Enrile,Eugenia L. Weiss,2020 Written through the lens of transnational feminism Women s Journey to Empowerment in the 21st Century offers a global view into the patriarchal attitudes that shape cultural practices that oppress women and continue to take form in the modern era By examining a range of issues the book compels readers to utilize a contextual framework in taking a closer look at contemporary violence and oppression against women in our world

Social Work Practice with Ethnically and Racially Diverse Nursing Home Residents and Their Families Patricia J. Kolb, 2007 The first of its kind this volume is a critical companion for service providers who work with African American American Indian Chinese Italian Japanese Korean Mexican American and Puerto Rican elders and their families in nursing homes and other care settings These groups are likely to use nursing homes in larger numbers as cultural shifts such as higher divorce rates and increased outside of home employment for females transform traditional family dynamics Contributors are experience social workers and most belong to the specific ethnic or racial group that is the focus of their chapter and have also provided nursing home services to this group They provide a wealth of demographic historical cultural and practice information crucial to understanding and providing services to older adults and their families Many nursing home residents experience physical and or cognitive debilitation and increased dependence as older adults and cultural and situational differences create variations in how these changes are experienced and addressed In this volume contributors touch upon all of these areas as well as ways in which prejudice and discrimination have shaped intergenerational and other relationships for members of specific ethnic and racial groups Little has been written about the characteristics needs and experiences of racially and ethnically diverse nursing home residents and their families and requirements for culturally competent social work practice Written by social workers for social workers and other service providers this book fills a gap in a rapidly growing area of gerontological service and provides a truly comprehensive examination of cultural and practice phenomena
