Except When I Write Reflections Of A Recovering Critic:

Except When I Write Arthur Krystal, 2011-06-01 When cultural critics with such wildly divergent views as Jacques Barzun Christopher Hitchens Joseph Epstein Dana Gioia and Morris Dickstein all agree about the merits of one contemporary essayist shouldn't you find out why I never think except when I sit down to write Attributed to Montaigne by Edgar Allan Poe From Montaigne in the sixteenth century to Orwell Eliot and Trilling in the twentieth the best literary essayists combine a gift for observation with an abiding commitment to books Although it may seem that books are becoming less essential and that a revolution in sensibility is taking place the essays of Arthur Krystal suggest otherwise Companionable without being chummy engaged without being didactic erudite without being stuffy he demonstrates that literature even in the digital age remains the truest expression of the human condition Covering subjects as diverse as aphorisms dueling the night and the 1960s the essays gathered here offer the common reader uncommon pleasure In prose that is both vibrant and elegant Krystal negotiates among myriad subjects from historical writing as exemplified by Jacques Barzun to the art of screenwriting as not so happily represented by F Scott Fitzgerald His cardinal rule as a writer William Hazlitt's Confound it man don't be insipid No fear of that Except When I Write is thoughtful in the most joyful sense brimming with ideas in order to give us the flow and cadence of someone actually thinking Keenly observant and death on pretension Krystal examines the world of books without ever losing sight of the world beyond them Literature may be the bedrock on which these essays rest but as F R Leavis aptly noted One cannot seriously be interested in literature and remain purely literary in interests Except When I Write is a reminder of both the pleasure and the power of a well tuned essay Artificial Color Catherine Keyser, 2019 This book examines how modern US writers used the changing geographies regimens and technologies of modern food to reimagine racial classification and to question its relationship to the mutable body By challenging a cultural ideal of purity this literature proposes that racial whiteness is perhaps the most artificial color of them all The Writers Directory, 2013 Autobiographical Biblical Criticism, 2019-05-21 The autobiographical turn in biblical criticism reveals the interpreter's I and reclaims it as an essential critical category issuing a challenge to traditional objective criticism Pioneers in the field have contributed essays both practical and theoretical They offer stimulating autobiographical readings of Hebrew Bible and New Testament texts and address hermeneutical issues that are at stake in this young field of criticism

The Library of Literary Criticism of English and American Authors: 680-1638 Charles Wells Moulton, 1901

The Library of Literary Criticism of English and American Authors Charles Wells Moulton, 1901 The Critic Jeannette Leonard Gilder, Joseph Benson Gilder, 1895 Critic and Good Literature, 1885 Library of Literary Criticism of English and American Authors Charles Wells Moulton, 1910 The American Review of Reviews, 1919 American Monthly Review of Reviews, 1890 The School Story David Aitchison, 2022-02-04 The School Story Young Adult Narratives in the Age of Neoliberalism examines the work of contemporary writers filmmakers and critics who reflecting on the realm of school experience help to shape dominant ideas of school The creations discussed are mostly stories for children and young adults David Aitchison looks at serious novels for teens including Laurie R. King's Speak and Faiza Guane's Kiffe Kiffe Tomorrow the light hearted middle grade fiction of Andrew Clements and Tommy Greenwald and Malala Yousafzai's autobiography for young readers I Am Malala He also responds to stories that take young people as their primary subjects in such novels as Sapphire's Push and films including Battle Royale and Cooties Though ranging widely in their accounts of young life such stories betray a mounting sense of crisis in education around the world especially in terms of equity the extent to which students from diverse backgrounds have fair chances of receiving quality education and empowerment the extent to which diverse students are encouraged to gain strength confidence and selfhood as learners Drawing particular attention to the influence of neoliberal initiatives on school experience this book considers what it means when learning and success are measured more and more by entrepreneurship competitive individualism and marketplace gains Attentive to the ways in which power structures institutional routines school spaces and social relations operate in the contemporary school story The School Story offers provocative insights into a genre that speaks profoundly to the increasingly precarious position of education in the twenty first century
