

The background of the book cover is a collage of three distinct images. The top image shows a woman with blonde hair, wearing a dark jacket over a light-colored shirt, sitting at a table with patterned chairs. She is looking down at some papers on the table, and there are glasses of wine nearby. The middle image is a dark, blurry photograph of a person riding a motorcycle. The bottom image shows a close-up of a bunch of fresh green leeks tied together with a black strap.

Expat Christina Henry de Tessan, 2013-03-05 It's one thing to travel abroad to stay in charming hotels and deliberate over whether to visit this museum or relax at that café even to head off the beaten track for a glimpse of real life and another thing altogether to move to another country Expat chronicles the experiences of twenty-two ordinary women living extraordinary lives in outposts as far flung as Borneo Ukraine India Greece Brazil China and the Czech Republic In vivid detail these writers share how the realities of life abroad match up to the expat fantasy One woman negotiates the rough courtesies of Serbia finding lives limned by harshness and an insurmountable spirit Another is tutored on English manners by an eclectic bunch from Liverpool The cardinal sin in America is to be insincere whereas the cardinal sin in England is to be boring For some their new home prompts them to reconnect or confront lost parts of themselves One woman rediscovers her Judaism in Japan another writer's Western outlook is challenged by Javanese mysticism Many share their own naïve blunders and private confessions a Thanksgiving dinner that doesn't translate in Paris a sudden yearning for bad Hollywood films And all discover that what it means to be American is redefined again and again taps into the bewilderment the joys and surprises of life overseas where the challenges often take unexpected forms and the obstacles overcome are all the more triumphant Featuring an astonishing range of perspectives destinations and circumstances this collection offers a beautiful portrait of expatriate life
