America's Past Gerald Lee Gutek, Patricia Gutek, 1986 Living History Museums Scott Magelssen, 2007-02-01 Living history museums are cultural institutions that merge historical exhibits with live costumed performance While unique and vitally important they often compromise historical accuracy and authenticity for the sake of tourism and entertainment value Many also pursue methods of performance and historiography that are becoming increasingly outdated Living History Museums Undoing History Through Performance examines the performance practices used by institutions such as Plimoth Plantation and Colonial Williamsburg and offers a new genealogy of living history museum performance in the U S and Europe Currently existing scholarship on living history museums addresses the subject from a museum studies or anthropology perspective Author Scott Magelssen however approaches the material from a background in theatre history and theory analyzing living history museums using postmodern methodology Considering performance as a method for the study of history and exploring emergent non traditional theatrical practices the book offers suggestions for performance in an increasingly postmodern landscape Concluding with an international listing of living history institutions and a complete list of sources Living History Museums is a valuable resource for students and teachers of theatre and performance studies cultural studies folklore popular culture American studies and museum studies Past into Present Stacy F.

Roth, 2000-11-09 First person interpretation the portrayal of historical characters through interactive dramatization or roleplaying is an effective albeit controversial method used to bring history to life at museums historic sites and other public venues Stacy Roth examines the techniques of first person interpretation to identify those that have been most effective with audiences while allowing interpreters to maintain historical fidelity Past into Present focuses on first person interpretation's most challenging form the unscripted spontaneous conversational approach employed in living history environments such as Plimoth Plantation in Massachusetts Conner Prairie in Indiana and Colonial Williamsburg in Virginia While acknowledging that a wide range of methods can touch audiences effectively Roth identifies a core set of practices that combine positive communication techniques classic interpretive philosophy and time tested learning theories to promote audience enjoyment provoke thought and inquiry convey important messages and themes and relate to individual visitor interests She offers numerous examples of conversation and demonstration strategies visitor behavior profiles and suggestions for depicting conflict and controversy and she provides useful character development guidelines interpretive training advice and recommendations for adapting first person interpretation for diverse audiences Fashioning History R.

Berkhofer, 2008-12-08 This book offers historians and aspiring historians a learned absorbing and comprehensive overview of current fashions of method interpretation and meaning in the context of postmodernism that has washed over the historical profession in the last two decades      American Heritage Society's Americana ,1989      Change Mummified Philip Rosen,2001 Exploring the modern category of history in relation to film theory film textuality and film history Change Mummified makes a persuasive argument for the centrality of historicity to film as well as the special importance of film in historical culture What do we make of the concern for recovering the past that is consistently manifested in so many influential modes of cinema from Hollywood to documentary and postcolonial film How is film related to the many modern practices that define themselves as configuring pastness in the present such as architectural preservation theme parks and above all professional historical research What is the relation of history in film to other media such as television and digital imaging How does emphasizing the connection between film and modern historicity affect the theorization and historicization of film and modern media culture Pursuing the full implications of film as cultural production Philip Rosen reconceptualizes modern historicity as a combination of characteristic epistemological structures on the one hand and the social imperative to regulate or manage time on the other Emphasizing a fundamental constellation of pursuit of the real indexical signification and the need to control time he interrogates a spectrum of film theory and film texts His argument refocuses the category of temporality for film and cultural theory while rethinking the importance of historicity An original and sustained meditation on the historiographic status of cinematic signs Change Mummified is both an intervention in film and media studies and an argument for the continuing necessity of modern historical thinking in its contradictions      American Heritage ,2007
