The Victims' Revolution Bruce Bawer,2012-09-04 Respected author critic and essayist Bruce Bawer whose previous book While Europe Slept How Radical Islam Is Destroying the West from Within was a New York Times bestseller and a National Book Critics Circle Award finalist now offers a trenchant and sweeping critique of the sorry state of higher education since the campus revolutions of the late 60s and early 70s In The Victims Revolution Bawer incisively contends that the rise of identity based college courses and disciplines Women s Studies Black Studies Gay Studies etc forty years ago has resulted in an impoverishment of thought and widespread political confusion while filling the brains of students with politically correct

mush Timely controversial and brilliantly argued Bawer s The Victims Revolution is necessary reading for students educators and anyone concerned about the contemporary crisis in academia a serious and important work that stands with other essential books on the subject like The Shadow University by Alan Kors Illiberal Education by Dinesh D Souza and Allan Bloom s The Closing of the American Mind Race, Ethnicity, Gender, and Class Joseph F. Healey,1998-03-04 This text is an introduction to the sociology of minority dominant relations and was written for students who do not have extensive backgrounds in the social sciences I have tried to make the subject matter coherent to these students in part by applying a unified set of themes and concepts throughout the text The analysis is consistent and continuous even while examining multiple perspectives and a variety of viewpoints This subject matter is highly controversial and filled with drama tragedy and triumph I have tried to deal with the issues and tell the stories behind the issues in a way that makes the text both a pleasure to read and a demonstration of the power and importance of thinking sociologically Race, Class, and Gender Margaret L. Andersen,1995 Examines the interrelationship of race class and gender and explores how they have shaped the experiences of all people in the U S Drawing from an array of contemporary and historical readings coupled with personal narratives from a diverse group of writers this book helps students see the connections between personal experience and social institutions The introductions to each of the sections provide continuity By identifying central issues in the field these introductions help students place the book s articles in context Race, Gender & Class in the World Cultures ,1995

Social Work Perspectives ,1996 Race, Racism, and Multiraciality in American Education Christopher Bodenheimer Knaus,2006 This research monograph analyses and describes how multiracial undergraduates have come to think about race and racism The work begins with an overview of the problem of race and racism in education then discusses the way in which race is typically construed along a continuum of mono racial thinking The text is then split into seven distinct case studies based on individuals with multiracial multicultural and ambiguous racial identities and their K 12 experience

Dominant-minority Relations in America John Paul Myers,2003 Looks at inter group relations from both conflict and assimilationist perspectives and encourages students to see that they are part of the process of dominant minority interaction

Race, Class, Gender, and Justice in the United States Charles E. Reasons,Darlene J. Conley,Julius Debro,2002 Substantial introductions to the six sections of 18 readings comprise the textbook Together they introduce the three issues as interrelated instead of separate as most texts and readers treat them Annotation c Book News Inc Portland OR booknews com

The New Class Society Robert Perrucci,Earl Wysong,2008 This book explores how class based resources and interests embedded in large organizations are linked to powerful structures and processes which in turn are rapidly polarizing the U S into a highly unequal double diamond class structure The authors show how and why American class membership in the 21st century is based on an organizationally based distribution of critical resources including income investment capital credentialed skills verified by elite schools and social connections to organizational leaders Gender

Through the Prism of Difference Maxine Baca Zinn, Pierrette Hondagneu-Sotelo, Michael A. Messner, 2016 Gender Through the Prism of Difference adopts a global transnational perspective on how race class and sexual diversity are central to the study of sex and gender In contrast with other books in this area which tend to focus on U S or European viewpoints this wide ranging anthology features many articles based on research done elsewhere throughout the world Now in its fifth edition the book opens with a revised and updated Introduction that sets the stage for understanding gender as a socially constructed experience Featuring twenty eight new readings this edition covers compelling subjects like transgendered people intersex issues men and masculinity sexual and gender violence disabilities obesity reproductive technologies educational testing aging and ageism and Occupy Wall Street
