Mohammed S. Assiri, 2015-09-01 This book offers a brief review of the theoretical perspectives and empirical findings that have shaped our understanding of salient facets of English language teaching learning and testing It also communicates my personal views in regard to certain issues in these three domains The book is divided into five chapters that range in their foci from theory to practice Chapter one presents the most influential theoretical perspectives that have sought to account for the processes involved in second language acquisition and the roles of the so many variables that affect how a learner acquires a second language The second chapter discusses several methods and practices commonly used in EL2 English as a foreign second language teaching Chapter three highlights the differences between Basic Interpersonal Communication Skills and Cognitive Academic Language Proficiency or BICS vs CALP as well as the various categories of language learning and use strategies In the fourth chapter the presentation centers on EL2 testing and assessment Chapter five is wholly devoted to my personal views including my philosophy of language education critiques of some scholarly views and practical recommendations Such views have had their inspiration and support from my experiences both as a learner and as a teacher plans developed by teachers of English from Mainland China and Hong Kong The lesson plans provide step by step instructions for teachers including resources and an explanation of the theories underpinning each step These plans many of which are integrated into specific English as a foreign language textbook units encourage teachers to be creative by adding or adapting the material they have in order to engage their students Although the main audience is English teachers the theoretical principles covered are applicable to teachers of any foreign language and the practical examples provided in the lesson plans can be easily modified to teach other languages as well Similarly it is not just for teachers working in Chinese contexts but for anyone interested in embodied cognition as a teaching approach I intend these pages to serve as a companion for teachers to reflect on their existing practices to provide new ideas and to make them aware of the many factors affecting learning
