The Superstition of Divorce
Gilbert Keith Chesterton, 2018 The Superstition of Divorce stroke a timely note in treating of this difficult subject with logic and a clear exposition of the historical background of the institution of marriage Witty and epigrammatic as would be expected of this famous essayist the little work brings valuable testimony as to the permanent values of the tradition of family and home founded upon centuries of orthodox marriage laws From such an author the arguments will appeal to a thoughtful and conservative element of readers here and abroad
