Echoing Hylas Hellenistic Metapoetics Wisconsin:

Echoing Hylas Mark Heerink, 2015-12-15 During a stopover of the Argo in Mysia the boy Hylas sets out to fetch water for his companion Hercules Wandering into the woods he arrives at a secluded spring inhabited by nymphs who fall in love with him and pull him into the water Mad with worry Hercules stays in Mysia to look for the boy but he will never find him again In Echoing Hylas Mark Heerink argues that the story of Hylas a famous episode of the Argonauts voyage was used by poets throughout classical antiquity to reflect symbolically on the position of their poetry in the literary tradition Certain elements of the story including the characters of Hylas and Hercules themselves functioned as metaphors of the art of poetry In the Hellenistic age for example the poet Theocritus employed Hylas as an emblem of his innovative bucolic verse contrasting the boy with Hercules who symbolized an older heroic epic tradition The Roman poet Propertius further developed and transformed Theocritus's metapoetical allegory by turning Heracles into an elegiac lover in pursuit of an unattainable object of affection In this way the myth of Hylas became the subject of a dialogue among poets across time from the Hellenistic age to the Flavian era Each poet Heerink demonstrates used elements of the myth to claim his own place in a developing literary tradition With this innovative diachronic approach Heerink opens a new dimension of ancient metapoetics and offers many insights into the works of Apollonius of Rhodes Theocritus Virgil Ovid Valerius Flaccus and Statius

Theocritus and his native Muse Poulheria Kyriakou, 2018-10-08 Hellenistic poets opted and were very likely expected to deal meaningfully and perhaps competitively with the tradition they inherited They also needed to secure the goodwill of actual or potential patrons Apollonius the author of a novel heroic epic eschews references to literary polemics and patronage Callimachus often adopts a polemical stance against some colleagues in order to suggest his poetic excellence Theocritus chooses a third way which has not been investigated adequately He avoids antagonism but ironizes the theme of poetic excellence and distances himself from the tradition of competitive success He does not cast his narrators as superior to predecessors and contemporaries but stresses the advantages and merits of colleagues This rejection of conceit is connected with a major strand in Theocritean poetry the power of word including song to provide assistance to characters in distress is a major open issue Language is versatile and potent but not all powerful Song gives pleasure but is not a panacea while instruction and advice are never helpful and may even prove harmful Most genuine pieces are ambiguous and open ended so that the aspirations of characters are not presented as doomed to failure

Markers of Allusion in Archaic Greek Poetry Thomas J. Nelson, 2023-05-25 Presents a new view of literary history by demonstrating how the earliest known Greek poets signposted their allusions to tradition

Hiles, 2022-03-30 The Routledge Companion to Art and Disability explores disability in visual culture to uncover the ways in which bodily and cognitive differences are articulated physically and theoretically and to demonstrate the ways in which disability is culturally constructed This companion is organized thematically and includes artists from across historical periods and cultures in order to demonstrate the ways in which disability is historically and culturally contingent The book engages with questions such as How are people with disabilities represented in art How are notions of disability articulated in relation to ideas of normality hybridity and anomaly How do artists use visual culture to affirm or subvert notions of the normative body Contributors consider the changing role of disability in visual culture the place of representations in society and the ways in which disability studies engages with and critiques intersectional notions of gender race ethnicity class and sexuality This book will be particularly useful for scholars in art history disability studies visual culture and museum studies Il calamo della memoria VII Lucio Cristante, Simona Ravalico, Tommaso Mazzoli, Vanni Veronesi, 2006 Bulletin de l'Association Guillaume Budé Association Guillaume Budé, 2023 Includes Index du Bulletin et de son Supplément cr que Flavian Responses to Nero's Rome Mark Heerink, Esther Meijer, 2022 These interdisciplinary essays engage with flowers as real artificial and represented objects across the Tudor and Stuart courts in gardens literature painting interior furnishing garments and as jewels medicine and food
