Hendrix, Uchenna Okeja, 2018-03-01 This book provides reliable information about important world religious leaders, correcting the misinformation that can be found on the internet. Religious leaders have shaped the course of history and deeply affected the lives of many individuals. This book offers alphabetically arranged profiles of roughly 160 religious leaders from around the world and across time, carefully chosen for their impact and importance and to maximize inclusiveness of faiths from around the world. Scholars from around the world, each one an expert in his or her field and all holding advanced degrees, came together to create an essential resource for students and for those with an interest in religion and its history. Every entry has been carefully edited in a two-stage review process guaranteeing accuracy and readability throughout the work. Not strictly a biographical reference that recounts the facts of religious figures' lives, the book helps users understand how the selected figures changed history. The entries are accompanied by excerpts of primary source documents and suggestions for further reading, while the book closes with a bibliography of essential print and electronic resources for further research. Is Reality Secular? Mary Poplin, 2014-01-02 What is the nature of reality? What does it mean to be human? And how do we account for ethics and morality? Mary Poplin examines naturalism, humanism, pantheism, and Judeo-Christian theism and explores the fundamental assumptions and limitations of each perspective.

Spirituality in Higher Education Heewon Chang, Drick Boyd, 2016-09-16 This collection of articles explores how a wide range of academics, diverse in location, rank, and discipline, understand and express how they deal with spirituality in their professional lives and how they integrate spirituality in teaching, research, administration, and advising. The contributors also analyze the culture of academia and its challenges to the spiritual development of those involved. Twenty chapter authors from a variety of faith traditions discuss the ways in which their own beliefs have affected their journeys through higher education. By using an autoethnographic, self-analytical lens, this collection shows how various spiritualities have influenced how higher education is understood, taught, and performed. The book will stimulate debate and conversations on a topic traditionally ignored in academia. Innovating Christian Education Research Johannes M.
