

A photograph of a winter scene. In the foreground, several small, green and white boats are parked on a snowy, icy shore. A large, bare tree with intricate branches dominates the upper half of the frame, its branches reaching over a body of water. The water is partially frozen, with some open areas reflecting the sky. In the background, a distant shoreline with more trees and a small building is visible under a pale, overcast sky.

interactions under global warming Hainan Gong,Shengping He,Zhiyuan Hu,Haipeng Yu,2024-04-08 Climate of the Past, Present and Future Javier Vinós,2022-09-20 This book is an unorthodox ground breaking scientific study on natural climate change and its contribution to ongoing multi centennial global warming The book critically reviews the effect of the following on climate Milankovitch cycles abrupt glacial Dansgaard Oeschger events Holocene climate variability the 1500 year cycle solar activity volcanic eruptions greenhouse gases energy transport Applying the scientific method to available evidence reveals that some of these phenomena are profoundly misunderstood by most researchers Milankovitch cycles are tied to orbital obliquity not to orbital precessional summer insolation glacial megatides might have triggered abrupt Dansgaard Oeschger events and tides are likely responsible for the related 1500 year climate cycle Climate change affects volcanic eruptions more than the opposite and secular variations in solar activity are more important to climate change during the Holocene than greenhouse gases In this book we see how important natural climate change has been on human societies of the past It also produces new climate projections for the 21st century and when the next glaciation could happen What emerges from this study of natural climate change is a central theme Variations in the transport of energy from the tropics to the poles have been neglected as a cause of climate change and solar activity variations affect climate by modulating this transport The author tells us Transporting more energy from a greenhouse gas rich region the tropics to a greenhouse gas poor region the poles increases the amount of energy lost at the top of the atmosphere The effect resembles a reduction in the greenhouse gas content The book presents the Winter Gatekeeper Hypothesis on how variations in solar activity regulate Earth s energy transport and in so doing affect atmospheric circulation the rotation of the planet and the El Niño Southern Oscillation This book is oriented toward students and academics in the climate sciences and climate anthropology and should also appeal to readers interested in the science of natural climate change The repercussions of Climate of the Past Present and Future are far reaching By uncovering a strong natural climate change component it provides a novel view of anthropogenic climate change fossil energy use and our future climate a view quite different from the IPCC s gloomy projections Middlebury Magazine ,1995 Getting Real About Race Stephanie M. Rury,2023-10-13 An Age of Accountability highlights the role of test based accountability as a policy framework in American education from 1970 to 2020 For more than half a century the quest to hold schools and educators accountable for academic achievement has relied almost exclusively on standardized assessment The theory of change embedded in almost all test based accountability programs held that assessment with stipulated consequences could lead to major improvements in schools This was accomplished politically by proclaiming lofty goals of attaining universal proficiency and closing achievement gaps which repeatedly failed to materialize But even after very clear disappointments no other policy framework has emerged to challenge its hegemony The American public today has little confidence in institutions to improve the quality of goods and services they provide especially in the public sector As a consequence many Americans continue to believe that accountability remains a vital necessity even if educators and policy scholars disagree Southern Florist and Nurseryman ,1922
