in East Asia Yasemin Nuhoğlu Soysal,2014-11-20 In recent decades East Asia has become increasingly interconnected through trade investment migration and popular culture at regional and global levels At the same time the region has seen renewed national assertiveness and nationalist impulses The book interrogates these seemingly contradictory developments as they bear on the transformations of the nation and citizenship in East Asia Conventionally studies on East Asia juxtapose these developments focusing on the much exercised dichotomy of the national and transnational In contrast this book suggests a different orientation First it moves beyond the simplistic view that demarcates the transnational as the West Second it does not view the national and transnational as distinct or contradictory spheres of influence and analysis but rather focuses on the interactions between the two with a view on how these interactions work to transform the ideals and practices of the good nation good society and good citizen The chapters cover a broad range of empirical research education science immigration multicultural policy human rights gender and youth orientations art and food flows politics of values and regional identity which highlight the ways in which the nation is reconfigured and the relationship between the citizen and national collective is redefined in relation to transnational dynamics and frameworks Transnational Trajectories in East Asia provides a new perspective on and original analysis of transnational processes bringing a fresh understanding to developments of the nation and citizenship in the region It will be of great interest to students and scholars of transnationalization and globalization comparative citizenship migration and multiculturalism and Asian politics society and regionalism The East ,2006 Georgina Campbells Ireland 07 Georgina Campbell,2006-10 This guide describes approximately 1200 recommended establishments throughout Ireland from a wide range of hotels restaurants cafes and pubs through to guest houses and farmhouses The Seasoning of a Chef Douglas Psaltis,2005 The fascinating diner to Ducasse true story of a young New Yorker s meteoric rise from his grandfather s Greek diner in Queens to the kitchens of some of the world s greatest restaurants Meet the man Alain Ducasse called the best cook in my kitchen Doug Psaltis a culinary Horatio Alger whose stubborn passion for perfection and dogged idealism propelled him from humble beginnings to the pinnacle of the food world Doug began working at his grandfather s diner in Jamaica Queens when he was just ten years old barely big enough to haul a sack of potatoes His next real restaurant job following a brief stint in college and some time spent in Colorado kitchens was in Huntington Long Island his hometown Drivingly ambitious and hardworking he would travel into Manhattan on his days off to work often for twelve hours or more without pay in some of New York s premiere restaurants He eventually was offered a regular job at David Bouley s new restaurant Bouley Bakery where he worked six days a week with double shifts at one of New York s hottest and most acclaimed restaurants often leaving the house before dawn and returning home to grab a couple of hours of sleep before taking the train back into the city From there he went to Alain Ducasse New York which eventually won four stars from the New York Times Doug caught Ducasse s eye and was selected as the first American chef in the Ducasse empire and the chef to lead the next Ducasse restaurant in New York Mix Running the kitchen of Mix was both a dream job and a formidable challenge Doug guided the restaurant through many crises in the face of mounting pressure and tension from all sides before an explosive conclusion After leaving Mix Doug was offered a job working for Thomas Keller at the French Laundry arguably America s restaurant mecca where he helped lead the kitchen with Keller Today just past thirty he is starting a whole new chapter in a remarkable career a seasoned chef at last Filled with rampant egos cutthroat kitchen politics and settings ranging from Monte Carlo to Paris and Napa Valley The Seasoning of a Chef is a real and rare glimpse into the food industry More than anyone until now Doug Psaltis reveals vividly and honestly the hardships sacrifices and dreams of glory that are all part of becoming a great chef Berlin Jack Holland, John Gawthrop, 1998 This is Japan , 1962 Seatrade Cruise Review , 2006 Bon Appétit , 2002-08 Franchise Times , 2006
