Seeking The Firebird's Nest Edward Schwartz,2005-09 Seeking the Firebird s Nest by Edward Schwartz carries the reader on a journey where Past and Present stream by the window of the author s mind Human frailty is given voice with hope to reach happiness and teach for the Future Esoteric anecdotes reveal his philosophy of life developed in his personal adventures trials and accomplishments all in a fairy tale format Many years have passed since I was a little boy Several times in my life the firebird has shown me her face Did she look like the firebird from the old man s house or does everybody see his or her own firebird I do not know But what I do definitely know is the fact that the taste of tears caused by the firebird s appearance is the same for all of us The Central Friend ,1909 Disaster Citizenship Jacob A.C. Remes,2015-12-30 A century ago governments buoyed by Progressive Era beliefs began to assume greater responsibility for protecting and rescuing citizens Yet the aftermath of two disasters in the United States Canada borderlands the Salem Fire of 1914 and the Halifax Explosion of 1917 saw working class survivors instead turn to friends neighbors coworkers and family members for succor and aid Both official and unofficial responses meanwhile showed how the United States and Canada were linked by experts workers and money In Disaster Citizenship Jacob A C Remes draws on histories of the Salem and Halifax events to explore the institutions both formal and informal that ordinary people relied upon in times of crisis He explores patterns and traditions of self help informal order and solidarity and details how people adapted these traditions when necessary Yet as he shows these methods though often quick and effective remained illegible to reformers Indeed soldiers social workers and reformers wielding extraordinary emergency powers challenged these grassroots practices to impose progressive solutions on what they wrongly imagined to be a fractured social landscape The Northwestern Reporter ,1912 The Railway Agent and Station Agent ,1890 Pennsylvania Forests ,1897 Soviet Life ,1988 Budget Volume for ... Alter,2011-06-07 Dil Das was a poor farmer an untouchable living near Mussoorie a colonial hill station in the Himalayas As a boy he became acquainted with a number of American missionary children attending a boarding school in town and over the years developed close friendships with them and eventually with their sons The basis for these friendships was a common passion for hunting This passion and the friendships it made possible came to dominate Dil Das s life When Joseph S Alter one of the boys who had hunted with Dil Das became an adult and a scholar he set out to write the life history of Dil Das as a way of exploring Garhwali peasant culture But Alter found his friend uninterested in talking about traditional ethnographic subjects such as community life family or work Instead Dil Das spoke almost exclusively about hunting with his American friends telling endless tales about friendship and hunting that seemed to have nothing to do with peasant culture When Dil Das died in 1986 Alter put the project away Years later he began rereading Dil Das s stories this time from a completely new perspective Instead of looking for information about peasant culture he was able to see that Dil Das was talking against culture From this viewpoint Dil Das s narrative made sense for precisely those reasons that had earlier seemed to render it useless his apparent indifference toward details of everyday life his obsession with hunting and above all his celebration of friendship To a degree in fact but most significantly in Dil Das s memory hunting served to merge his and the missionary boys identities and thereby to supersede and render irrelevant all differences of class caste and nationality For Dil Das the intimate experience of hunting together radically decentered the prevailing structure of power and enabled him to redefine himself outside the framework of normal social classification Thus Knowing Dil Das is not about peasant culture but about the limits of culture and history And it is about the moral ambiguity of writing and living in a field of power where despite intimacy self and other are unequal
