Geno In Pursuit Of Perfection:

Geno Geno Auriemma, Jackie MacMullan, 2025-05-01 Controversial confrontational and driven Coach Geno Auriemma is a force to be reckoned with and the most accomplished male coach in women's basketball today. In his relentless quest for excellence at the University of Connecticut he has led the Huskies to five national championships. Yet his soul never rests. For Auriemma life affords only the briefest moments of happiness: a good round of golf, forty minutes of great basketball a day at the beach with his family, a nice glass of wine while disaster is seemingly always waiting to strike. It's a fatalistic philosophy, a remnant of his hardscrabble early years, but it's an outlook that has driven him to unparalleled success. In this deeply personal memoir, Geno Auriemma reveals for the first time the man behind the legend. He talks candidly about his coaching style, famed for being one of the most demanding in all the sports world. He spills the beans about his stormy dealings with other coaches, such as his archrival Pat Summitt of the University of Tennessee. And with warmth and a genuine love for his champions, he writes openly about Diana Taurasi, Sue Bird, Nykesha Sales, Rebecca Lobo, Swin Cash, and all of his other UConn stars who have gone on to stellar WNBA careers. You get a courtside seat to all of the action, including an epilogue on the 2004-05 season as well as interviews with the team's most celebrated players. A rare look inside the soul of a true competitor, GENO is the story of how one passionate man overcame his own fears to achieve an extraordinary record of success.

Geno Auriemma John Fredric Evans, 2019-07-15 Today top recruits know that Connecticut embodies excellence in women's basketball. But before Geno Auriemma began his unprecedented run to 11 national championships, the Huskies only brought out bleachers for the biggest games. Auriemma established a culture that would become a model for sports programs. His players learn to put their personal point totals aside and work together for wins in the process, unlocking their fullest potential as people. This two-time Olympic gold medal winner gives a great interview because he tells us what he truly believes, and he's a great coach for the same reason. His players know exactly what he expects from them, and stars do not get special treatment. He demands more from those with the most to give. This biography details the remarkable story of an immigrant who rose from poverty to become synonymous with success in sports, developing leadership principles invaluable to any team.

Getting to Us Seth Davis, 2018 What makes a coach great? How do great coaches turn a collection of individuals into a coherent unit? Seth Davis, one of the keenest minds in sports journalism, has been thinking about that question for twenty-five years. It's one of the things that drove him to write the definitive biography of college basketball's greatest coach, John Wooden. Wooden: A Coach's Life. But John Wooden coached a long time ago. The world has changed, and coaching has too. Tremendously, Seth Davis decided to embark on a proper investigation to get to the root of the matter. In Getting to Us, Davis probes and prods the best of the best from the landscape of active coaches of football and basketball college and pro from Urban Meyer Dabo Swinney and Jim Harbaugh to Mike Krzyzewski Tom Izzo Jim Boeheim Brad Stevens Geno Auriemma and Doc Rivers to get at the fundamental ingredients of greatness in the coaching sphere There s no single right way of course part of the great value of this book is Davis s distillation of what he has learned about different types of greatness in coaching and what sort of leadership thrives in one kind of environment but not in others Some coaches have thrived at the college level but not in the pros Why What s the difference Some coaches are stern taskmasters others are warm and cuddly some are brilliant strategists but less emotionally involved with their players and with others it s vice versa In Getting to Us we come to feel a deep connection with the most successful and iconic coaches in all of sports big winners and big characters whose stories offer much of enduring interest and value Rivals David K. Wiggins,R . Pierre Rodgers,2012-01-01 The sixteen original essays in this collection cover influential and famous rivalries from a variety of sports including track and field golf boxing basketball tennis ice skating baseball football soccer and more The essays are diverse but together they illustrate what is common to any rivalry equally matched opponents that often have decidedly different backgrounds styles and personalities These differences may center on race and culture political and societal ideologies personality geography or religion a mix intensified by fans and the media From highly publicized and emotionally charged individual competitions to bitterly fought team contests Rivals illuminates what one of a kind opponents and the passion they inspire tell us about ourselves and our society Sports in American Life Richard O.
