Geoffrey Hartman Romanticism After The Holocaust:

Geoffrey Hartman Pieter Vermeulen, 2014 Romanticism and the Biopolitics of Modern War Writing Neil Ramsey, 2023-02-23 Military literature was one of the most prevalent forms of writing to appear during the Romantic era yet its genesis in this period is often overlooked Ranging from histories to military policy manuals and a new kind of imaginative war literature in military memoirs and novels modern war writing became a highly influential body of professional writing Drawing on recent research into the entanglements of Romanticism with its wartime trauma and revisiting Michel Foucault's ground breaking work on military discipline and the biopolitics of modern war this book argues that military literature was deeply reliant upon Romantic cultural and literary thought and the era's preoccupations with the body life and writing Simultaneously it shows how military literature runs parallel to other strands of Romantic writing forming a sombre shadow against which Romanticism took shape and offering its own exhortations for how to manage the life and vitality of the nation

Romanticism and Aesthetic Life in Postcolonial Writing Philip Dickinson, 2018-02-08 This book explores Romanticism as a force that exerts an insistent but critically neglected pressure on the postcolonial imagination From the decolonizing poetics of the Caribbean to the white writing of South Africa from the aesthetics of post imperial disappointment to postcolonial theory itself it develops an account of the textual and philosophical interpenetration of postcolonial aesthetics with Romantic ideas about sense history and world What emerges is a reading of Romantic postcolonial co involvement that moves beyond well worn models of intercanonical antagonism and the historicizing biases of conventional literary history Caught somewhere between the effects of reanimation and estrangement Romanticism appears here not as a stable textual repository prior to the postcolonial but as echo spectre self interruption or vital force that can yet only emerge in the guise of the afterlife its agency mediated but never exhausted by postcolonial writing Theory at Yale Marc Redfield, 2015-11-02 This book examines the affinity between theory and deconstruction that developed in the American academy in the 1970s by way of the Yale Critics Harold Bloom Paul de Man Geoffrey Hartman and J Hillis Miller sometimes joined by the French philosopher Jacques Derrida With this semi fictional collective theory became a media event first in the academy and then in the wider print media in and through its phantasmatic link with deconstruction and with Yale The important role played by aesthetic humanism in American pedagogical discourse provides a context for understanding theory as an aesthetic scandal and an examination of the ways in which de Man's work challenges aesthetic pieties helps us understand why by the 1980s he above all had come to personify theory Combining a broad account of the Yale Critics phenomenon with a series of careful reexaminations of the event of theory Redfield traces the threat posed by language's unreliability and inhumanity in chapters on lyric on Hartman's representation of the Wordsworthian imagination on Bloom's early theory of influence in the 1970s together with his later media reinvention as the genius of the Western Canon and on John Guillory's influential attempt to interpret de Manian theory as a symptom of literature's increasing marginality A final chapter examines Mark Tansey's paintings Derrida Queries de Man and Constructing the Grand Canyon paintings that offer subtle complex reflections on the peculiar event of theory as deconstruction in America Trauma Lucy Bond, Stef Craps, 2019-11-06 Trauma has become a catchword of our time and a central category in contemporary theory and criticism In this illuminating and accessible volume Lucy Bond and Stef Craps provide an account of the history of the concept of trauma from the late nineteenth century to the present day examine debates around the term in their historical and cultural contexts trace the origins and growth of literary trauma theory introduce the reader to key thinkers in the field explore important issues and tensions in the study of trauma as a cultural phenomenon outline and assess recent critiques and revisions of cultural trauma research Trauma is an essential guide to a rich and vibrant area of literary and cultural inquiry Fear and Fantasy in a Global World ,2015-09-01 At a time when the mass media insist on bombarding us with news about natural political and economic disasters words ideas and images associated with such crises and catastrophes shape to a great extent collective memory and current imagination Fear and Fantasy in a Global World seeks to stir the debate on the processes and meanings of as well as on the relations between fear and fantasy in the globalized world Collective fears and fantasies are analysed from a number of cross disciplinary perspectives promoted by the epistemological underpinnings of comparative literature In various ways and from different disciplinary angles the 17 essays here gathered respond to and scrutinize key questions related to the imaginaries of fear and fantasy as well as their relations to trauma crisis anxiety and representations of both the conscious and the unconscious Contributors Alexandra Hills Ana Filipa Prata Brecht de Groote Christin Grunert Christopher Bollas Daniela Di Pasquale David Vichnar Edith Beltr n Gero Gutzzeit Hande Gurses Harriet Hulme James Rushing Daniel Jo o Pedro da Costa Margarita Garc a Candeira Marija Sruk Martijn Boven and Ortwin de Graef The Jewish Quarterly ,2008 The Geoffrey Hartman Reader Geoffrey H.
