Cinematically Rendering Confucius David H. Fleming, 2025-02-24 Cinematically Rendering Confucius marks the first book length enquiry into China's first two big screen treatments of arguably the best known and most influential thinker in world history Confucius By interweaving methods drawn from Film Studies Comparative Philosophy and Media Archaeology in response to broader calls to deepen and thicken the scope and purview of film philosophical enquiry this trailblazing book grounds Fei Mu's 1940 patriotic art film Kong Fuzi and Hu Mei's 2010 Hollywood blockbuster Kongzi as pre and postsocialist examples of Chinese politico philosophical filmmaking that straddle the PRC's revolutionary Marxist socio political experiment After exploring the geopolitics surrounding why Confucius has been historically included and excluded from the European classification of philosopher and addressing the difficulties that entering into Chinese Thought presents to non natives the book's first half undertakes a deep dive into the history of re mediating the Confucian image imagination Arguing that Confucius might be a form of film philosopher avant la lettre we thereafter explore repetitions and differences surrounding the ever changing treatment and representation of Confucius on screen concluding with a look at the latest AI infused theory film When Marx Met Confucius 2023

Turkey's Necropolitical Laboratory Bargu Banu Bargu, 2019-10-08 This book makes a strong case that Turkey's regime and its vicissitudes are dependent on a necropolitical undercurrent Building on the insights of critical and contemporary theory the essays address the multiple ways in which lives are brought into the fold of power Once there they are subjected to mechanisms of death and destruction and to modalities of infrastructural violence strategic neglect and exposure This produces new forms of impoverishment inequality and disposability Bringing together historical discursive and ethnographic approaches from multiple disciplines this collection offers a sobering and original analysis of contemporary Turkey

Screen Shots Rebecca L. Stein, 2021-06-01 In the last two decades amid the global spread of smartphones state killings of civilians have increasingly been captured on the cameras of both bystanders and police Screen Shots studies this phenomenon from the vantage point of the Israeli occupation of Palestinian territories Here cameras have proliferated as political tools in the hands of a broad range of actors and institutions including Palestinian activists Israeli soldiers Jewish settlers and human rights workers All trained their lens on Israeli state violence propelled by a shared dream that advances in digital photography closer sharper faster would advance their respective political agendas Most would be let down Drawing on ethnographic work Rebecca L Stein chronicles Palestinian video activists seeking justice Israeli soldiers laboring to perfect the military's image and Zionist conspiracy theorists accusing Palestinians of playing dead Writing against techno optimism Stein investigates what camera dreams and disillusionment across these political divides reveal about the Israeli and Palestinian colonial present and the shifting terms of power and struggle in the smartphone age
