Discrimination In An Unequal World:

Discrimination in an Unequal World Miguel Angel Centeno, Katherine S. Newman, 2010-09-01 Discrimination in an Unequal World explores the relationship between discrimination and inequality by comparing and examining what effect globalization has had on discrimination Investigating a broad variety of social relations and practices with an equally broad array of methods it establishes a base with which to effectively compare the varying forms of discrimination of different societies

The Social Context of Technological Experiences Anant Kamath, 2020-05-04 This book demonstrates how technology and society shape one another and that there are intrinsic connections between technological experiences and social relationships It employs an array of theoretical concepts and methodological tools to examine the technology society nexus among three urban groups in India traditional caste based handloom weavers subaltern Dalit communities and informal female labour It provides evidence of how innovations such as industrial technologies communication technologies and workplace technologies are not only about strides in science and engineering but also about politics and sociology on the ground The book contributes to the growing research in innovation studies and technology policy that establishes how technological processes and outcomes are contingent on complex sociological variables and contexts The author offers an inclusive holistic and interdisciplinary approach to understanding the field of innovation and technological change and development by involving various methodologies network analysis archival work oral histories focus group discussions interviews The book will serve as reference for researchers and scholars in social sciences especially those interested in development studies science and technology policy and innovation studies information and communication technology ICT policy public policy management social work and research methods economics sociology social exclusion and subaltern studies women s studies and South Asian studies It will also be useful to nongovernmental organisations activists and policymakers

Swaraj and the Reluctant State K.B. Saxena, 2020-11-02 This book traces the historical roots of marginalization of Dalits Adivasis Muslims and Women in Indian Society and appraises the role of the State in combating the widespread discrimination faced by them in society economy politics and governance and in their own struggles for dignity and social justice Please note This title is co published with Aakar Books New Delhi Taylor Francis does not sell or distribute the Hardback in India Pakistan Nepal Bhutan Bangladesh Maldives and Sri Lanka

Histories of Global Inequality Christian Olaf Christiansen, Steven L. B. Jensen, 2019-07-09 This book argues that inequality is not just about numbers but is also about lived historical experience It supplements economic research and offers a comprehensive stocktaking of existing thinking on global inequality and its historical development The book is interdisciplinary drawing upon regional and national perspectives from around the world while seeking to capture the multidimensionality and multi causality of global inequalities Grappling with what economics offers as well as its blind spots the study focuses on some of today s most relevant and pressing themes discrimination and human rights defences and critiques of inequality in history decolonization international organizations gender theory the history of quantification of inequality and the history of economic thought The historical case studies featured respond to the need for wider historical research and to calls to examine global inequality in a more holistic manner The Introduction Chapter 1 Histories of Global Inequality Introduction is open access under a CC BY 4.0 license via link springer.com Unequal Worlds, 2012 Social Progress in Britain Anthony F. Heath, Elizabeth Garratt, Ridhi Kashyap, Yaojun Li, Lindsay Richards, 2018-09-19 In his landmark 1942 report on social insurance Sir William Beveridge talked about the five giants on the road to reconstruction the giants of Want Disease Ignorance Squalor and Idleness Social Progress in Britain investigates how much progress Britain has made in tackling the challenges of material deprivation ill health educational standards lack of housing and unemployment in the decades since Beveridge wrote It also asks how progress in Britain compares with that of peer countries Canada France Germany Italy Japan Sweden and the USA Has Britain been slipping behind What has been the impact of the increased economic inequality which Britain experienced in the 1980s has rising economic inequality been mirrored by increasing inequalities in other areas of life too Have there been increasing inequalities of opportunity between social classes men and women and different ethnic groups And what have been the implications for Britain's sense of social cohesion The Roles of International Law in Development Siobhan McInerney-Lankford, Robert McCorquodale, 2024-02-08 The Roles of International Law in Development provides an in depth analysis of the relationship between international law and development It explores whether and how development could effectively yield more equitable and sustainable outcomes if the relevant rules of international law were consistently incorporated and appropriately applied Tax, Inequality, and Human Rights Philip Alston, Nikki Reisch, 2019-04-11 This book examines why taxation is central to the enjoyment or suppression of human rights in an age of rising nationalism authoritarianism and disillusionment with the traditional role of the state Taxation and human rights are at the heart of debates about the appropriate balance in society between the public and private sectors and ultimately the content of a new social contract Unequal Worlds Vidhu Verma, 2015 In today's world social inequalities are diverse and intricate and they are magnified by different kinds of discrimination This volume takes up the question of social discrimination and group disadvantage of Dalits in India while also taking into account newer kinds of discrimination The essays analyze conceptions of equality central to legislation in redressing previous discrimination in society and the discourses that have emerged around it in modern India The Indian government and judiciary have been involved through constitutional provisions and legal judgments in abolishing caste discrimination Despite efforts by the government equality of opportunity remains an elusive ideal and several bases of discrimination continue to subvert a concern with formal and substantive equality The promise of equality provisions and the struggle against caste discrimination are contradicted by the existence of newer kinds of social inequalities arising out of income wealth occupation education power and skills This work specifically sets out to explore contemporary manifestations of discrimination that persist in our society through institutions and through norms and practices that define the terms on which certain social groups continue to be excluded Anti-discrimination Law

Christopher McCrudden, 1991 Since the early 1990s there has been an enormous growth in scholarship addressing the theoretical aspects of anti discrimination law Touching upon a number of jurisdictions this volume collects many of the most illuminating articles published since then The studies are placed into context by a specially written introduction Equality

J. Baker, K. Lynch, S. Cantillon, J. Walsh, 2004-06-30 How can egalitarian ideals be put into action This ground breaking book sets out a new interdisciplinary model for equality studies Integrating normative questions about the ideal of equality with empirical issues about the nature of inequality it applies a new framework to a wide range of contemporary inequalities Proposing far reaching changes in the economy politics law education and research practices it sets out innovative political strategies for achieving those aims It is an invaluable resource for both academics and activists The Supreme Court Review 1974 Philip B. Kurland, 1975-03 This is a book of supreme court rulings in the year 1974 Between Fault Lines and Front Lines , Inequality is one of today s greatest challenges obstructing poverty reduction and sustainable development As the power of elites grows and societal gaps widen institutions representing the public good and universal values are increasingly disempowered or co opted and visions of social justice and equity side lined This book explores the roles of elites and institutions of power in the deepening of social and economic cleavages across the globe by asking how inequalities have reshaped structures from the local to the transnational level and what consequences they have wrought In addition the contributors present examples of peaceful processes of policy change that have made societies greener and more socially just levelled out social stratification and devolved power and resources from elites to non elites or towards marginalized or discriminated groups Based on cutting edge empirical research the chapters in this volume bring together conceptual thinking and a number of case studies from the Global North and South combining different levels of analysis and a range of qualitative research methods to present solutions for closing the inequality gap The University of New South Wales Law Journal , 2003 Cases and Materials on Law and Poverty George Cooper, 1973 Document and Reference Text
