Dispatches Against Displacement Field Notes From San Franciscos Housing Wars:

Dispatches Against Displacement James Tracy, 2014-09-29 San Francisco is being eroded by waves of cash flowing north from Silicon Valley Recent evictions of long time San Francisco residents outrageous rents and home prices and blockaded Google buses are only the tip of the iceberg James Tracy s book focuses on the long arc of displacement over almost two decades of dot com boom and bust offering the necessary perspective to analyze the latest urban horrors A housing activist in the Bay Area since before Google existed Tracy puts the hardships of the working poor and middle class front and center These essays explore the battle for urban space public housing residents fighting austerity militant housing takeovers the vagaries of federal and state housing policy as well as showdowns against gentrification in the Mission District From these experiences Dispatches Against Displacement draws out a vision of what alternative urbanism might look like if our cities were developed by and for the people who bring them to life James Tracy is a Bay Area native and a well respected community organizer He is co founder of the San Francisco Community Land Trust which uses public and private money to buy up housing stock and take it out of the real estate market as well as a poet and co author of Hillbilly Nationalists Urban Race Rebels and Black Power

The War on the Social Factory Annie Paradise, 2024-04-15 A collective ethnography of grassroots mobilizations for community safety across the Silicon Valley This is a narrative of struggle and solidarity and a collective toolkit for grassroots opposition to militarization policing and ongoing conditions of war in the current conjuncture of racial patriarchal capitalism Grassroots researcher Annie Paradise presents here a collective ethnography of the mothers and community matriarchs whose children have been murdered by police across the San Francisco Bay Area as they develop and practice autonomous creative forms of resistance The War on the Social Factory The Struggle for Community Safety in the Silicon Valley maps local families struggles to reclaim their households and their communities to create a social infrastructure of care justice and safety outside state and market determined modes of security Practices such as sustained vigil testimony and the production and circulation of insurgent knowledges are shown here to be part of interconnected justice efforts to demilitarize and decarcerate communities in the face of the multiple forms of violence enacted under late racial patriarchal capitalism Paradise examines the expanding carceral processes of enclosure criminalization dispossession expropriation and disposability that mark the neoliberal security regime across the Silicon Valley and offers counter counterinsurgent strategies and practices of co generative dynamic resistance

The One-Way Street of Integration Edward G. Goetz, 2018-03-15 Introduction alternative approaches to regional equity and racial justice The integration imperative Affirmatively furthering community development The hollow prospect of integration The three stations of fair housing spatial strategy New issues unresolved questions and the widening debate Conclusion everyone deserves to live in an opportunity neighborhood

Issues in Race and Ethnicity CQ Researcher, 2017-10-13 In the wake of a divisive presidential election charged with debates over immigration and identity politics Americans continue to grapple with questions of race and ethnicity This collection of nonpartisan and thoroughly researched reports focuses on provocative issues including gentrification the Black Lives Matter movement and the resurgence of white supremacy anti-Semitism and the Alt Right Because it's CQ Researcher the policy reports are expertly researched and written showing all sides of the debate Chapters follow a set template exploring three issue questions then offering background an overview of the current situation and a look ahead All issues include a chronology bibliography yes no debate box photos charts and figures

A Southern Panther James R. Tracy, 2025-04-01 A dialogue on hope and persistence between a movement mentor and author educator and organizer James R Tracy Malik Rahim served as the chair of the New Orleans Black Panther Party for Self Defense Since that time he has never stopped organizing In a series of candid interviews with James R Tracy Rahim discusses his involvement in struggles to defend Public Housing free political prisoners and rebuild New Orleans post Katrina His unique approach to organizing updating the politics of intercommunalism rainbow coalitions and municipalism offer vital lessons for today's social movements Also includes interviews conducted by Malik Ismail of The Vanguard Show podcast Jessica Gingrich of the Many Roads to Here podcast and Mansa Musa of the Rattling the Bars radio show on The Real News Network Legacy Left publishes small books interviewing movement elders about the lessons they want to share with the next generations What radical visions of the past will provide inspiration for today What old strategies should be jettisoned How does one maintain their political commitments throughout the decades We are nostalgic for nothing yet against amnesia We learn from the past while charting new paths and following new visions

Living and Working Dogma, 2022-05-24 An argument against the ideology of domesticity that separates work from home lavishly illustrated with architectural proposals for alternate approaches to working and living Despite the increasing numbers of people who now work from home in the popular imagination the home is still understood as the sanctuary of privacy and intimacy Living is conceptually and definitively separated from work This book argues against such a separation countering the prevailing ideology of domesticity with a series of architectural projects that illustrate alternative approaches Less a monograph than a treatise richly illustrated the book combines historical research and design proposals to reenvision home as a cooperative structure in which it is possible to live and work and in which labor is socialized beyond the family freeing inhabitants from the sense of property and the burden of domestic labor The projects aim to move the house beyond the dichotomous logic of male female husband wife breadwinner housewife and private public They include the reinvention of single room occupancy as a new model for affordable housing the reimagining of the simple tower and plinth prototype as host to a multiplicity of work activities and enlivening street life and a plan for a modular adaptable structure meant to house a temporary dweller All of these design projects conceive of the house not as a commodity the form of which is determined by its exchange value but as an infrastructure defined by its use value

Dispatches from the Threshold Rae Baker, Alexander Ferrer, 2025-03-18T00:00:00Z Dispatches from the Threshold is an emergent archive of the burgeoning movement for housing justice in North America and beyond Housing insecurity turned catastrophic during the COVID 19 pandemic exposing the cruelty of threadbare tenant protections and state hostility toward unhoused people made worse by mass unemployment a public health crisis and racist police violence Since 2020 tenants have successfully fought back against evictions and encampment policing pushed their governments to extend and fortify eviction moratoria strengthened tenants rights and protections for unhoused people and thought beyond strategies that primarily appease landlords and lenders At the same time the urgent work of stemming immediate eviction displacement and surveillance has sat in tension with long haul movement work and cross movement organizing This book brings together activists scholars and legal practitioners directly involved in tenant organizing to contextualize and catalogue the traction and tensions of the movement across seventeen cities in five countries Contributors connect housing justice to struggles against criminalization surveillance and policing and to debates about social reproduction precarity organized labour abolitionist praxis and political strategy These dispatches are as much a chronicle of organizing in a moment of crisis as an invitation to build solidarities across movements to ensure enduring justice for all With contributions from Vancouver Victoria Toronto Winnipeg Detroit Philadelphia Minneapolis Newark Atlanta San Francisco Chicago Washington Los Angeles Lexington Belgrade Melbourne and Khori Gaon

Rooted and Growing Kristy Wang, San Francisco Planning and Urban Renewal Association. Housing the Region Task Force, 2021 The Shame of San Francisco Citizens Emergency Task Force for a Workable Housing Policy, 1969 Full City Lorenzo Gomez, 2018-09-16 While many blame San Francisco's gentrification solely on forces within the private market this book examines how it was actually government programs and initiatives such as Hope VI that displaced thousands African American Latino Asian and working class families from San Francisco The history of this struggle is chronologically detailed starting with the housing wars that began in the 1970s in the Western Addition The author concludes that to aide the ongoing gentrification occurring in certain San Francisco neighborhoods in the 1990s the Hope VI program was implemented to destroy the large public housing communities then existent within them and remove their predominantly low income and minority populations Although this targeted and depleted the African American community primarily it also affected other communities such as Latinos in the Mission Southeast Asians in the Tenderloin and San Francisco's working class generally This book gives an account of this history as well as of these public housing communities organization in the face of adversity from politicians the media and their gentrifying neighborhoods to survive Counterpoints Anti-Eviction Mapping Project, 2021-08-03 Counterpoints A San Francisco Bay Area Atlas of Displacement and Resistance brings together cartography essays illustrations poetry and more in order to depict gentrification and resistance struggles from across the San Francisco Bay Area and act as a roadmap to counter hegemonic knowledge making and activism Compiled by the Anti Eviction Mapping Project each chapter reflects different frameworks for understanding the Bay Area's ongoing urban upheaval including evictions and root shock indigenous geographies health and environmental racism state violence

transportation and infrastructure migration and relocation and speculative futures By weaving these themes together Counterpoints expands normative urban studies framings of gentrification to consider more complex regional historically grounded and entangled horizons for understanding the present Understanding the tech boom and its effects means looking beyond San Francisco's borders to consider the region as a socially economically and politically interconnected whole and reckoning with the area's deep history of displacement going back to its first moments of settler colonialism Counterpoints combines work from within the project with contributions from community partners from longtime community members who have been fighting multiple waves of racial dispossession to elementary school youth envisioning decolonial futures In this way Counterpoints is a collaborative co created atlas aimed at expanding knowledge on displacement and resistance in the Bay Area with rather than for or about those most impacted

Hollow City Rebecca Solnit, 2018-11-06 Reporting from the front lines of gentrification in San Francisco Rebecca Solnit and Susan Schwartzberg sound a warning bell to all urban residents Wealth is just as capable of ravaging cities as poverty

Rising Housing Costs and Re-segregation in San Francisco Philip Verma, Dan Rinzler, Miriam Zuk, 2018

Housing the City by the Bay John Baranski, 2019-02-26 San Francisco has always had an affordable housing problem Starting in the aftermath of the 1906 earthquake and ending with the dot com boom Housing the City by the Bay considers the history of one proposed answer to the city's ongoing housing crisis public housing John Baranski follows the ebbs and flows of San Francisco's public housing program the Progressive Era and New Deal reforms that led to the creation of the San Francisco Housing Authority in 1938 conflicts over urban renewal and desegregation and the federal and local efforts to privatize government housing at the turn of the twenty first century This history of public housing sheds light on changing attitudes towards liberalism the welfare state and the economic and civil rights attached to citizenship Baranski details the ways San Francisco residents turned to the public housing program to build class based political movements in a multi racial city and introduces us to the individuals community activists politicians reformers and city employees who were continually forced to seek new strategies to achieve their aims as the winds of federal legislation shifted Ultimately Housing the City by the Bay advances the idea that public housing remains a vital part of the social and political landscape intimately connected to the struggle for economic rights in urban America
