The Four Faces of the Republican Party and the Fight for the 2016 Presidential Nomination H. Olsen, D. Scala, 2016-03-04 The Four Faces of the Republican Party clearly describes how Republican Presidential nominating contests unfold Its focus on party factions allows readers to understand the process and to predict who the eventual nominee will be In particular the authors explore why a conservative party always nominates candidates favored by the party s establishment and why evangelical conservatives always emerge as one of the two final contenders for the nomination This book is essential reading for anyone professor student journalist consultant or candidate who wishes to understand report on or influence a Republican Presidential nomination contest

Austerity and Political Choice in Britain H. Clarke, P. Kellner, M. Stewart, J. Twyman, P. Whiteley, 2016-04-29 This is a comprehensive study of the 2015 general election in Britain designed not only for students and scholars of British politics but also for the interested reader It looks at the record of the Coalition government both in terms of its plans and performance particularly in relation to the economy as the starting point for understanding what happened The authors go on to examine the campaign during the run up to polling day and to explain why people voted the way they did They also take a close look at the various constituency battlegrounds across the country showing how and why voting patterns varied across Britain Finally they discuss the implications of the election outcome for the future of the party system and British politics more generally This book provides important insights into an election which has permanently changed the political geography of Britain Policy-Oriented Technology Assessment Across Europe Lars Klüver, Rasmus Øjvind Nielsen, Marie Louise Jørgensen, 2015-11-18 This book is open access under a CC BY license Policy making to address grand challenges faces greater complexity than any previous project of modernization Future scenarios are haunted by uncertainty and there is real ambivalence as to the values that policy should strive for In this situation decision makers look to research and innovation to provide answers and solutions But neither can the great transitions ahead be planned by science nor will conventional methods of innovation bring such transitions about A turn to interactive governance is therefore underway with policy makers and citizens becoming increasingly involved in processes of deliberating futures Technology Assessment TA is the art of structuring such processes TA goes beyond traditional expert policy analysis by systematically combining a multi disciplinary evidence base with participatory approaches to policy deliberation TA thus seeks to act as a hub for serious and transparent dialogue between policy industry science and society about the challenges ahead and the available options for overcoming them responsibly This volume offers an up to date account of the expansion of technology assessment capacities across new European member states The contributions of this volume are written by leading European researchers and practitioners in technology assessment TA and are based on the PACITA Parliaments and Civil Society in Technology Assessment project Skin Bleaching in Black Atlantic Zones S. Tate, 2015-11-12 This book's discussion of skin bleaching lightening and toning in Black Atlantic zones disengages with the usual tropes of Black Nationalism and global white supremacy such as the desire to be white low self esteem and self hatred and instead engages with the global multi billion dollar market in lighter skins with products from local cosmetic and pharmaceutical companies and entrepreneurs This practice can be for short term strategic purposes and the production of bleached lightness and new subjectivities through skin shades across Black Atlantic zones the UK USA Caribbean Latin America and the Africa continent is also a simultaneous critique of continuing pigmentocracy and darker skin disadvantage This book seeks to decolonize skin bleaching lightening and toning by exploring its racialized gender political and libidinal economies in the Black Atlantic In so doing it moves past the notion that global white supremacy dynamizes the practice to a position where the interaction of colourism and post race neo liberal racialization aesthetics becomes the focus

Community Reparation for Young Offenders N. Pamment, 2015-12-06 Community reparation for young offenders involves unpaid work such as painting and decorating litter picking and graffiti removal Whilst remaining a major part of the youth justice landscape concern has been raised about the poor quality of workplace provision In this book Nicholas Pamment provides the first fully researched examination of community reparation He establishes the most comprehensive model for the effective delivery of unpaid work demonstrating the importance of meaningful work placements which facilitate key employability skills associated with reductions in re offending Drawing upon empirical evidence and the experience of offenders he warns against a formulaic approach to workplace allocation where there is an over reliance on low cost menial tasks His timely study concludes that more attention needs to be paid to the rehabilitative potential of community reparation requiring the commitment and dedication of service providers Central Bank Ratings Indranarain Ramlall,2015-12-08

When the global financial crisis broke central banks in both the US and the UK undertook massive asset purchase programmes which resulted in considerable increase in assets Cross border spillover effects were noted across global economies Balance sheet adjustments may eventually gnaw at the profit earning capacities of central banks and in extreme cases negative equity can manifest This study investigates a benchmark for comparing central banks The author employs a unique and large set of metrics to gauge the quality of central banks and presents an argument to reflect upon international best practices The study uses different criteria including the accounting body research presence of stress testing exercises inflation targeting frameworks staff efficiency and languages of communication with the public amongst others The book begins by providing an overview of central banking before exploring some stylized facts about central banks in unique detail It then presents a ratings methodology for worldwide central banks to analyse the results A backtesting exercise is included to validate the quality of the ratings obtained The book concludes by offering insights into the comparison of central banks

Troping the Body Gwendolyn Audrey Foster,2000 Troping the Body Gender Etiquette and Performance is an interdisciplinary study of etiquette texts conduct literature and advice books and films Gwendolyn Audrey Foster analyzes the work of such women authors as Emily Post Christine de Pizan Hannah Webster Foster Emily Bront Frances E W Harper and Martha Stewart as well as such women filmmakers as Lois Weber and Kasi Lemmons Specifically Foster notes I was interested in the possibility of locating power and agency in the voices of popular etiquette writers Her investigation led her to analyze etiquette and conduct literature from the Middle Ages to the present Within this wide scope she redefines the boundaries of conduct literature through a theoretical examination of the gendered body as it is positioned in conduct books etiquette texts poetry fiction and film Drawing on Bakhtin Gates Foucault and the new school of performative feminism to develop an interdisciplinary approach to conduct literature and literature as conduct Foster brings a unique perspective to the analysis of ways in which the body has been gendered raced and constructed in terms of class and sexuality Even though women writers have been actively writing conduct and etiquette texts since the medieval period few critical examinations of such literature exist in the fields of cultural studies and literary criticism Thus Foster s study fills a gap and does so uniquely in the existing literature In examining these voices of authority over the body Foster identifies the dialogic in the texts of this discipline that both supports and disrupts the hegemonic discourse of a gendered social order Class-passing Gwendolyn Audrey Foster,2005 Oprah Winfrey Donald Trump Roseanne Barr and Britney Spears typify class passers those who claim different socioeconomic classes as their own The book deconstructs the politics of celebrity fashion and conspicuous consumerism and analyses class passing as it relates to the American Dream gender and marriage Women Filmmakers of the African & Asian Diaspora Gwendolyn Audrey Foster,1997-05-01 Black women filmmakers not only deserve an audience

Gwendolyn Audrey Foster asserts but it is also imperative that their voices be heard as they struggle against Hollywood's constructions of spectatorship ownership and the creative and distribution aspects of filmmaking Foster provides a voice for Black and Asian women in the first detailed examination of the works of six contemporary Black and Asian women filmmakers She also includes a detailed introduction and a chapter entitled Other Voices documenting the work of other Black and Asian filmmakers Foster analyzes the key films of Zeinabu irene Davis one of a growing number of independent Black women filmmakers who are actively constructing in the words of bell hooks an oppositional gaze British filmmaker Ngozi Onwurah and Julie Dash two filmmakers working with time and space Pratibha Parmar a Kenyan Indian born British Black filmmaker concerned with issues of representation identity cultural displacement lesbianism and racial identity Trinh T Minh ha a Vietnamese born artist who revolutionized documentary filmmaking by displacing the voyeuristic gaze of the ethnographic documentary filmmaker and Mira Nair a Black Indian woman who concentrates on interracial identity Women

Filmmakers of the African & Asian Diaspora Gwendolyn Audrey Foster, 1997-05-01 Black women filmmakers not only deserve an audience Gwendolyn Audrey Foster asserts but it is also imperative that their voices be heard as they struggle against Hollywood's constructions of spectatorship ownership and the creative and distribution aspects of filmmaking Foster provides a voice for Black and Asian women in the first detailed examination of the works of six contemporary Black and Asian women filmmakers She also includes a detailed introduction and a chapter entitled Other Voices documenting the work of other Black and Asian filmmakers Foster analyzes the key films of Zeinabu irene Davis one of a growing number of independent Black women filmmakers who are actively constructing in the words of bell hooks an oppositional gaze British filmmaker Ngozi Onwurah and Julie Dash two filmmakers working with time and space Pratibha Parmar a Kenyan Indian born British Black filmmaker concerned with issues of representation identity cultural displacement lesbianism and racial identity Trinh T Minh ha a Vietnamese born artist who revolutionized documentary filmmaking by displacing the voyeuristic gaze of the ethnographic documentary filmmaker and Mira Nair a Black Indian woman who concentrates on interracial identity Identity and Memory Gwendolyn Audrey Foster, 2003 Considered to be one of the most influential auteurs in French cinema today Chantal Akerman has had a profound impact on both feminist filmmaking discourse and avant garde film She has shown herself to be an uncompromising and dedicated practitioner of the cinematic arts in works such as I You He She Je tu il elle 1974 Jeanne Dielman 23 quai du Commerce 1080 Bruxelles 1975 Meetings with Anna Les Rendez vous d Anna 1978 American Stories Food Family and Philosophy Histoires d Am rique 1989 and From the East D Est 1993 Akerman has continued to create new and unexpected films that explore ideas about image gaze space performance and narration This collection of essays edited by Gwendolyn Audrey Foster assesses Akerman's wide ranging oeuvre particularly her exploration of identity and memory and considers her development as an artist and as a social force Along with a detailed filmography and bibliography both compiled by Foster ten of the key figures in contemporary feminist moving image discourse explore

Future Texts Vicki Callahan, Virginia Kuhn, 2015-10-25 Future Texts Subversive Performance and Feminist Bodies sketches several possibilities for future texts those that imagine new pathways through the forms used to express contemporary questions of race gender and identity Future Texts Subversive Performance and Feminist Bodies area of investigation is situated within popular culture not as a place of critique or celebration but rather as a contested site that crosses an array of media forms from music video to games to global journalism While there is an established tradition in feminist writing founded on experimental expression that disrupts patriarchal culture it has too often failed to consider issues of race and class This is evident in the dilemma faced by black feminists who alienated from dominant feminism's failure to consider their experience have been forced to choose whether they were black or women first To push back against such identity splintering Future Texts Subversive Performance and Feminist Bodies begins with the politics and aesthetics of Afrofuturism which sets the stage for the dialogue around contemporary feminism that runs through the collection With a paradigm of remix as linguistic play and reconfiguration the chapters confront the question of narrative codes and conventions These new formats are crucial to rewriting the relationship between hegemonic and resistant texts

Feminisms in the Cinema Laura Pietropaolo, Ada Testaferri, 1995 Feminisms in the Cinema provides a platform for both women filmmakers and the women who analyze their films Bloomsbury Review invaluable demonstrates how gender and genre intersect how feminisms are flourishing at home and abroad Women's Review of Books Well known feminist theorists juxtapose their work with that of women filmmakers Each writer addresses some aspect of marginality discussing it as a political strategy and as a challenge to power structures

Gender in Film and Video Neal King, Rayanne Streeter, Jessica Herling, Talitha Rose, 2018-07-03 Gender in Film and Video tracks changes in gender on screen by documenting trends of the internet age The jargon free book focuses on six instances of media in transition and their histories including the rise of feminism on television in sports events and in comedy drama series the growth of DIY production by underrepresented groups through crowdfunding and YouTube channels and struggles between fans and producers over control of casting and storytelling This volume focuses on the breakdown of the categories content production reception that top down production distribution in TV and cinema tended to keep distinct This text is for students in sociology media studies and women's and gender studies

The Dimensions of Difference Caroline Godart, 2016 The Dimensions of Difference departs from traditional takes on feminist film criticism and in particular from the psychoanalytical focus on the gaze to examine the question of sexual difference through three axes space time and bodies These are some of the most fundamental elements of cinema which deploys the bodies of actors through space and time for instance through camerawork and editing While this approach may not at first sight seem to be related to questions of gender and sexuality Caroline Godart demonstrates its relevance to feminist film studies by weaving together careful analyses of space time and bodies in women s cinema with close readings of the same concepts in the works of three philosophers Luce Irigaray Henri Bergson and Gilles Deleuze The book investigates how certain films generate a cinematic experience of sexual difference and frames this analysis within a careful philosophical inquiry into the notion of alterity itself These tools provide fruitful resources for feminist inquiry giving insights into sexual difference as it operates within film aesthetics and beyond cinema in the world at large The result is a compelling reflection on feminism film form and continental philosophy Looking for the Other E. Ann Kaplan,1997 On racial gaze Women of Vision ,2001 The Misogynistic Backlash to Women-Strong Films Dana Schowalter,Shannon Stevens,Daniel L. Horvath,2021 This book is an exploration of the political struggle for visibility engendered by the growing number of women centered popular films and a critical analysis of the intensifying misogynistic backlash that have accompanied such advances in the depiction of women on screen The book draws from a variety of theoretical and methodological tools to provide critical cultural analysis and alternative readings of women strong films and their important role in society The authors engage with popular culture and the popular press media studies and rhetorical criticism examining new modes of communication while providing historical context to help make sense of these oppositional readings The book includes case studies on Mad Max Fury Road Wonder Woman Atomic Blonde Star Wars and Ghostbusters to analyze critical responses men s rights activist boycotting campaigns online harassment and the political economy that precede and accompany the creation and presentation of these films This is an accessible and timely analysis of the rise of feminist friendly and women led films and the inevitable counterculture of misogyny It is suitable for students and researchers in Media and Communication Studies Gender and Media and Cultural Studies
