Distorted Imagination Lessons From The Rushdie Affair:

Distorted Imagination Ziauddin Sardar, Merryl Wyn Davies, 1990      Plurality and Christian Ethics Ian S. Markham, 1994-03-24 Too many parts of the world testify to the difficulties religions have in tolerating each other It is often concluded that the only way tolerance and plurality can be protected is to keep religion out of the public sphere Ian Markham challenges this secularist argument In the first half of the book he advances a careful critique of European culture which exposes the problem of plurality His analysis of the Christendom Group is contrasted with the outlook found in the USA where a religiously informed culture may be seen to be tolerant In the second half of the book the author argues that plurality is better safeguarded by a theistic rather than a secularist foundation He submits that too often secularists use relativist arguments while theists want to appeal to the complexity of God's world He concludes that in our post modern world the religious affirmation of diversity offers genuine political possibilities for cultural enrichment      Liberalism, Multiculturalism and Toleration John Horton, 2016-07-27 The publication of Salman Rushdie's novel The Satanic Verses has provoked fierce debate about the scope of toleration in a modern multicultural society This volume explores the philosophical issues arising from this debate from a variety of points of view It includes both general discussions of the relationship between liberalism toleration and multiculturalism and several essays devoted specifically to the implications of the Rushdie affair for liberal political theory and its practical commitment to toleration      Text and Trauma Ian Richard Netton, 2012-12-06 An essay in literary criticism with a difference addressing the nature of blasphemy and using selected novels by Salman Rushdie Najib Mahfuz and Nikos Kazantzakis as case studies      Blasphemy in Modern Britain David S. Nash, 2019-10-10 Originally published in 1999 this book deals with the cultural and legal debates which have counterposed the right to free speech and the need to protect Christian sensibilities in Britain from the time of the French Revolution to the present day Central to the book is a close study of the content and public reception of the anti Christian literature of the 19th century associated with the names G W Foote and J W Gott the Freethinker and The Truthseeker David Nash here also examines a variety of critical theoretical approaches to blasphemy and blasphemous writing including postmodernism and the work of Foucault and Said The book concludes with a detailed examination of 20th century blasphemy cases up to and including the Gay News case The Last Temptation of Christ and Visions of Ecstasy      Postcolonial Literature and Challenges for the New Millennium Lucienne Loh, Malcolm Sen, 2017-10-02 This volume brings together an international range of postcolonial scholars to explore four distinct themes which are inherently interconnected within the globalised landscape of the early 21st century China Islamic fundamentalism civil war and environmentalism Through close reading a range of literary texts by writers drawn from across the globe these essays seek to emphasise the importance of literary aesthetics in situating the theoretical underpinnings and political motivations of postcolonial studies in the new millennium Colonial legacies especially in terms of structuring exploitative capitalist relations between countries and regions are shown to persist in postcolonial nations in the form of global civil wars and systemic environmental waste Chinese authoritarianism and the Indian picturesque represent less familiar forms of neo colonialism These essays not only engage with established writers such as Salman Rushdie and Anita Desai they also critically reflect on work by Nadeem Aslam Mai Couto Romesh Gunesekara Bei Dao and Ma Jian This book was originally published as a special issue of Textual Practice Islam, Postmodernism and Other Futures Sohail Inayatullah, Gail Boxwell, 2003-02-20 As one of our most high profile Muslim intellectuals he has also become an increasingly important voice in the media since the events of September 11th 2001 This is the first collection of his writings of one of our most high profile Muslim intellectuals offering a comprehensive introduction to his thought Starting with his analysis of his own position as a British Muslim and a writer it goes on to explore issues of Islam and cultural change education identity post modernism and the future Drawn from a broad range of his work in scholarly journals as well as from his many books on aspects of culture and society it includes his most frequently cited papers and makes an ideal introduction to the immense scope of his work in cultural studies American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences 32:1 MD.
