Family Dispute Resolution Peter Salem, Kelly Browe Olson, 2024 Family Dispute Resolution brings together some of the field's leading practitioners researchers teachers and policymakers to share their expertise and experience This overview of family dispute resolution processes and practices is designed to help professionals who assist separating and divorcing parents make decisions about the future of their families It is essential reading for legal and mental health professionals in the field and law and graduate students who intend to work with separating and divorcing families

Ethics and Professional Issues in Couple and Family Therapy Megan J. Murphy, Lorna Hecker, 2016-10-04 Ethics and Professional Issues in Couple and Family Therapy Second Edition builds upon the strong foundations of the first edition This new edition addresses the 2015 AAMFT Code of Ethics as well as other professional organizations codes of ethics and includes three new chapters one on in home family therapy a common method of providing therapy to clients particularly those involved with child protective services one chapter on HIPAA and HITECH Regulations that practicing therapists need to know and one chapter on professional issues in which topics such as advertising professional identity supervision and research ethics are addressed This book is intended as a training text for students studying to be marriage and family therapists

Divorced from Reality Jane C. Murphy, Jana B. Singer, 2015-06-26 Over the past thirty years there has been a dramatic shift in the way the legal system approaches family disputes Traditionally family disputes were resolved through an adversary system opposing parties appealed to a judge who determined which party was at fault and how the marital assets including the children should be divided Now many family courts are opting for a problem solving model in which courts attempt to restructure families by resolving both legal and nonlegal issues At the same time American families have changed dramatically Divorce rates have slowed while the number of children born and raised outside of marriage has increased sharply Grandparents and same sex partners care for children and more fathers seek an active role in their children's lives As a result families in today's court system have become more diverse and their legal situations more complex In Divorced from Reality Jane C Murphy and Jana B Singer argue that the current problem solving model fails to address the realities of today's families While today's dispute resolution regime may represent an improvement over its more adversary predecessor it is built largely around the model of a divorcing nuclear family with lawyers representing all parties a model that fits poorly with the realities of today's disputing families And courts may no longer be the best place for families in conflict To serve the families it is meant to help the legal system must adapt and reshape itself

Unedited summary from book jacket      Clinical Handbook of Couple Therapy, Fourth Edition Alan S.
