Dixieland Delight A Football Season On The Road In The Southeastern Conference:

Dixieland Delight Clay Travis, 2010-04-20 A sports columnist documents the University of Tennessee's 2006 football season in the NCAA's Southeastern Conference As indispensable to college football fans as ibuprofen on Sunday morning Warren St John bestselling author of Rammer Jammer Yellow Hammer There is no college ball more passionate and competitive than football in the Southeastern Conference where seven of the twelve schools boast stadiums bigger than any in the NFL and six five million fans hit the road every year to hoot and holler their teams to victory In September 2006 popular sports columnist and lifelong University of Tennessee fan Clay Travis set out on his Dixieland Delight Tour Without a single map hotel reservation or game ticket he began an eight zero mile journey through the beating heart of the Southland As Travis toured the SEC he immersed himself in the bizarre game day rituals of the common fan brazenly dancing with the chancellor's wife at a Vanderbilt frat party hanging with University of Florida demigod quarterback Tim Tebow and abandoning himself totally to the ribald intensity and religious fervor of SEC football Dixieland Delight is Travis's hilarious loving irreverent and endlessly entertaining chronicle of a season of ironic excess in a world that goes a little crazy on football Saturdays It's the irreverent attitude and willingness to make fun of one's own obsessions that give the account its zip Booklist Dixieland Delight promises to be so popular down South it might replace the Bible in select motel rooms Pretty much anyone will love this thing but if you have even a remote interest in the SEC this essentially is your new handbook on life Dan Wetzel Yahoo national sports columnist and co author of Glory Road

The End(s) of Religion Eric Bain-Selbo, 2022-01-13 Eric Bain Selbo argues that the study of religion from philosophers to psychologists and historians of religion to sociologists has separated out the ends or goals of religion and thus created the conditions by which institutional religion is increasingly irrelevant in contemporary Western culture There is ample evidence that institutional religion is in trouble and little evidence that it will strengthen in the future giving some reason to believe that we are in the process of seeing the end of religion At the same time various cultural practices have met in the past and continue to meet today certain fundamental human needs needs that we might identify as religious that now are being fulfilled through what Bain Selbo calls the religion of culture The End(s) of Religion traces the way that the very study of religion has led to institutional religion being viewed as just one human institution that can address our particular religious needs rather than the sole institution to do so In turn ultimately we can begin to see how other institutions or forms of culture can function to serve these same needs or ends
