Future Generation The Zine For Subculture Parents Kids Friends And Others:

Future Generation China Martens, 2017-09-01 China Martens started her pioneering mamazine The Future Generation in 1990 She was a young anarchist punk rock mother who didn't feel that the mamas in her community had enough support so she began publishing articles on radical parenting in an age before the internet The anthology of her zine The Future Generation The Zine Book for Subculture Parents Kids Friends Others was first printed in 2007 and has been out of print for many years Covering sixteen years it uses individual issues as chapters focusing on personal writing and retaining the character of a zine that changed over the years from her daughter's birth to teenagehood and beyond We are proud to present a tenth anniversary edition including a new afterword by China's grown daughter Clover The Future Generation remains a timeless resource for parents caregivers and those who care about them Though first published in the 1990s many of the essays and observations about parenting children and surviving in a hostile political climate still ring true today The next four years are going to be especially demanding for those trying to balance parenting politics and survival We're going to need the voices and experiences in The Future Generation now more than ever

The Future Generation China Martens, 2017 Covering sixteen years using individual issues as chapters focusing on personal writing and retaining the character of a zine that changed over the years from her daughter's birth to teenagehood and beyond This is the tenth anniversary edition including a new afterword by China's grown daughter The Future Generation remains a timeless resource for parents caregivers and those who care about them The Future Generation, #11, 2002

The Future Generation, #14 : Work, 2005 This Is How We Survive Mai'a Williams, 2019-01-01 In This Is How We Survive Revolutionary Mothering War and Exile in the 21st Century Mai'a Williams shares her experiences working in conflict zones and with liberatory resistance communities as a journalist human rights worker and midwife in Palestine Egypt Chiapas Berlin and the U S while mothering her young daughter Aza She first went to Palestine in 2003 during the Second Intifada to support Palestinians resisting the Israeli occupation In 2006 she became pregnant in Bethlehem West Bank By the time her daughter was three years old they had already celebrated with Zapatista women in southern Mexico and survived Israeli detention and during the 2011 Arab Spring they were in the streets of Cairo protesting the Mubarak dictatorship She watched the Egyptian revolution fall apart and escaped the violence like many of her Arab comrades by moving to Europe Three years later she and Aza were camping at Standing Rock in protest of the Dakota Access Pipeline and co-creating revolutionary mothering communities once again This is a story about mothers who are doing the work of deep social transformation by creating the networks of care that sustain movements and revolutions By centering mothers in our organizing work we center those who have the skills and the experience of creating and sustaining life on this planet This Is How We Survive illuminates how mothering is a practice essential to the work of revolution It explores the heartbreak of revolutionary movements falling apart and revolutionaries scattering across the globe into exile And most importantly how mamas create no matter the conditions the resilience to continue doing revolutionary work Girl Zines Alison Piepmeier, 2009-11-18 Stroll through any public park in Brooklyn on a weekday afternoon and you will see black women with white children at every turn Many of these women are of Caribbean descent and they have long been a crucial component of New York's economy providing childcare for white middle and upper middleclass families Raising Brooklyn offers an in depth look at the daily lives of these childcare providers examining the important roles they play in the families whose children they help to raise Tamara Mose Brown spent three years immersed in these Brooklyn communities in public parks public libraries and living as a fellow resident among their employers and her intimate tour of the public spaces of gentrified Brooklyn deepens our understanding of how these women use their collective lives to combat the isolation felt during the workday as a domestic worker Though at first glance these childcare providers appear isolated and exploited and this is the case for many Mose Brown shows that their daily interactions in the social spaces they create allow their collective lives and cultural identities to flourish Raising Brooklyn demonstrates how these daily interactions form a continuous expression of cultural preservation as a weapon against difficult working conditions examining how this process unfolds through the use of cell phones food sharing and informal economic systems Ultimately Raising Brooklyn places the organization of domestic workers within the framework of a social justice movement creating a dialogue between workers who don't believe their exploitative work conditions will change and an organization whose members believe change can come about through public displays of solidarity Maternal Theory Andrea O'Reilly, 2021-07-08 Theory on mothers mothering and motherhood has emerged as a distinct body of knowledge within Motherhood Studies and Feminist Theory more generally This collection The Second Edition of Maternal Theory Essential Readings introduces readers to this rich and diverse tradition of maternal theory Composed of 60 chapters the 2nd edition includes two sections the first with the classic texts by Adrienne Rich Nancy Chodorow Sara Ruddick Alice Walker Barbara Katz Rothman bell hooks Sharon Hays Patricia Hill Collins Audre Lorde Daphne de Marneffe Judith Warner Patrice diQinizio Susan Maushart and many more The second section includes thirty new chapters on vital and new topics including Trans Parenting Non Binary Parenting Queer Mothering Matricentric Feminism Normative Motherhood Maternal Subjectivity Maternal Narratology Maternal Ambivalence Maternal Regret Monstrous Mothers The Migrant Maternal Reproductive Justice Feminist Mothering Feminist Fathering Indigenous Mothering The Digital Maternal The Opt Out Revolution Black Motherhoods Motherlines The Motherhood Memoir Pandemic Mothering and many more Maternal Theory is essential reading for anyone interested in motherhood as experience ideology and identity Anarchist Pedagogies Robert H. Haworth, 2012-08-01 Education is a challenging subject for anarchists Many are critical about working within a state run education system that is embedded in hierarchical standardized and authoritarian structures Numerous individuals and collectives envision the creation of counterpublics or alternative educational sites as possible forms of resistance while other anarchists see themselves as saboteurs within the public arena believing that there is a need to contest dominant forms of power and educational practices from multiple fronts Of course if anarchists agree that there are no blueprints for education the question remains in what dynamic and creative ways can we construct nonhierarchical anti authoritarian mutual and voluntary educational spaces Contributors to this edited volume engage readers in important and challenging issues in the area of anarchism and education From Francisco Ferrer s modern schools in Spain and the Work People s College in the United States to contemporary actions in developing free skools in the U K and Canada to direct action education such as learning to work as a street medic in the protests against neoliberalism the contributors illustrate the importance of developing complex connections between educational theories and collective actions Anarchists activists and critical educators should take these educational experiences seriously as they offer invaluable examples for potential teaching and learning environments outside of authoritarian and capitalist structures Major themes in the volume include learning from historical anarchist experiments in education ways that contemporary anarchists create dynamic and situated learning spaces and finally critically reflecting on theoretical frameworks and educational practices Contributors include David Gabbard Jeffery Shantz Isabelle Fremeaux John Jordan Abraham P DeLeon Elsa Noterman Andre Pusey Matthew Weinstein Alex Khasnabish and many others
