Funding the Future Stephen Thomas Beers, Timothy W. Herrmann, Paul Blezien, 2012 The fall of 2008 brought a sea change in the country and in higher education Assumptions held for years seemed no longer to be valid Funding the Future Preparing University Leaders to Navigate the Coming Change has been assembled by seasoned and wise voices from across the higher education landscape for such a time as this Relevant leaders must understand institutional finances accounting rules and decision making models now more than ever There is very little room for fiscal error particularly for the majority of universities that rely on tuition dollars to sustain their budgets Foreword Making a Place for the Future in Maya

Guatemala John P. Hawkins, Walter Randolph Adams, 2024-10-15 In 1998 Hurricane Mitch pounded the isolated village of Santa Catarina Ixtahuac n in mountainous western Guatemala destroying many homes The experience traumatized many Ixtahuacuenses Much of the community relocated to be safer and closer to transportation that they hoped would help them to improve their lives acquire more schooling and find supportive jobs This study followed the two resulting communities over the next quarter century as they reconceived and renegotiated their place in Guatemalan society and the world Making a Place for the Future in Maya Guatemala shows how humans continuously evaluate and rework the efficacy of their cultural heritage This process helps explain the inevitability and speed of culture change in the face of natural disasters and our ongoing climate crisis
